Strawberry Festival

A Strawberry Festival will be held on the lawn of the Trinity Lutheran church, this town, on Saturday, June 13 from 4 to 7 p. m. Tickets are available from any member of the Young Ladies' Bible Class, or phone Mt. Joy 3-6662. Delicious chicken corn soup, cakes, etc., will be available. In case of rain, the festival will be held in the church basement.

CHICKIES MALE CHORUS SINGS AT SHAMOKIN

The Chickies Brethren Male Chorus motored to Shamokin Sunday where it presented a program in the Shamokin Brethren Church Sunday evening. The group is led by Mrs. Robert Hess, wife of the pastor, and consists of twenty-six members.

Rev. and Mrs. Hess and family will attend the Brethren Conference in Colorado this month.

Senior Class Outing To Halloway Beach

The senior class of Mt. Joy High School is taking a one-day trip to Halloway Beach, Maryland, on Sunday, June 7th.

A doggie roast is being planned, and swimming and boating will be enjoyed by all.

The trip was made possible by Jay Barnhart, a member of the class, whose parents have a cottage nearby. The group will travel in private cars.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL THIS SATURDAY

The Hi-Gem Sunday School Class of the Methodist Church will hold a strawberry festival on the lawn of the church this Saturday afternoon and evening starting at four o'clock. Strawberry short-cake will be a long list of tasty articles to be offered for sale.

Local Midgets Win Opener

Mount Joy Midgets came thru in their opening game here on Wednesday night when they defeated Grandview in an exciting contest.

The game included all of the thrills of a big league opener with Burgess Charles Fish tossing out the first ball.

Solicitors for the local Midgets made a canvass of the borough Tuesday evening when a total of $131 was raised to purchase equipment for the players.

The local senechie is as follows:

- June 3, — Landisville, home.

Local Netmen Again Star

The Lancaster City and County Closed Tennis Tournament for Junior Boys and Girls got to a flying start yesterday with Mount Joy netmen figuring prominently in all events.

Ben Clinger, who teamed with Jack Beaton to capture the state PIAA doubles championship this season, showed his court ability without his partner as he stormed back from a 6-4 opening set loss to Ronald Caulwell with 6-3, 6-3 verdicts in a second round test. Clinger passed the opening round when his opponent, McCaskey's Roy Bleacher defaulted.

The girls got their first chance at local tournament play and Mary Ann Schofield, student-coach at Mt. Joy High in the season just finished, defeated Ephrata's Kate Kilkuskie, 6-2, 6-2.
