E. Donegal Joins In Adult Program For Recreation
Under the summer playground program, an adult music recreation program will be conducted by the East Donegal Township School District and the Marietta Borough School District which will be open to anyone in the areas who desires to study a music instrument. The course of study will apply to beginners as well as advanced musicians. A community band is planned as well as a dance orchestra. Both organizations will be open to those persons who are enrolled in the program. This is free to everyone and is not limited to adults.
At present there are 112 students enrolled. Anyone interested in this program can enroll by contacting E. Morrell Shields. The classes will meet at Florin Elementary School, East Donegal High School, and Marietta High School.
