East Donegal School Board Fills Vacancies On Faculty

The resignation of Miss Anna Blecker, teacher of Spanish and English, was accepted with regret at the regular monthly meeting of the East Donegal Township School Board, Friday evening, June 5. Miss Nancy Seldomridge, Lancaster, was elected to fill the vacancy. Miss Seldomridge graduated from Elizabethtown College this month and did her practice teaching in East Donegal High School. Miss Beverly Hays, of Lancaster, was elected to fill the vacancy of I. Diller Miller, art instructor. Mr. Miller resigned last month to accept a position with the Hempfield Schools. Miss Hays graduated last month from Kutztown State Teachers College. Mrs. Rhoda Engle Kaylor, Elizabethtown, was elected to teach the third section of first grade. The third section was necessary because of the large enrollment next fall. She formerly taught in the E. Donegal Schools.

The Maytown Churches were granted permission to use the Maytown Elementary School for Bible School, June 8-19. The physical education supply bid was awarded to Shenk Brothers for the 1953-54 school year for $177.74. Repairs were approved for the three schools in the township. The painting of the outside of both the Florin Washington Elementary School and the East Donegal High School will be completed; several rooms, the front lawn of the Washington School will be repaired and desks will be renovated. George E. Morris, president at the meeting. Also attending the meeting were J. W. Bingham, supervising principal; John Hart, high school principal and Eugene C. Saylor, elementary principal.

Miss Lena Lowen Becomes Bride Of Kenneth Miller

The marriage of Miss Lena Loewen and Kenneth Eugene Miller, took place last night at 8:00 p. m., at the Evangelical United Brethren Church, Mt. Joy. Rev. Ranck officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Anna Mae Loewen, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Shirley Hawthorne and Claudette Zeller served as bridesmaids.

Donald Miller, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Henry Kriner and Joseph Carroll were the ushers. The bridal gown, fashioned of imported tulle over satin, featured a basque bodice with a silk illusion yoke, edged in Chentilly lace. The full skirt had two deep flounces of tulle, trimmed with lace and terminated into a chapel train.

The finger tip silk illusion veil was caught to a lace Juliet cap, trimmed with pearls. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Fred Loewen. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement.

The bridegroom is serving in the U. S. Army, and will return to Fort Knox, Kentucky, Friday where he is attending Leadership School.
