Harold Fellenbaum Wins Men's Singles

In a very hard-fought battle, Harold Fellenbaum of Mt. Joy defeated second-seeded Glenn Miller to win the men's single championship of the Lanco Closed Tennis Tournament held at the Lancaster Tennis Club on Saturday night.

Fellenbaum, who lost to Miller last year, was seeded No. 4 in the tournament this year. After rallying in the fourth and fifth sets he achieved his victory by scores of 3-6, 7-5, 4-6, 6-4, 7-5.

Marianne Schofield also added honors for Mount Joy and herself as she turned back the title challenge of Sally Lied of Ephrata to win the women's singles championship in straight sets, 6-1 and 6-4. Marianne succeeded Nancy Paden as champion. She did not defend her title this year.
