IT'S YOUR PICNIC

Success of the forthcoming Community Picnic at Hershey Park Aug. 26 depends in large part upon the people of Mount Joy. The Jay-Cees have gone to great lengths to provide lots of fun and prizes and entertainment.

But it isn't going to make too much difference how good the picnic is if you aren't there to enjoy it. And from what we have heard you will be mighty sorry if you miss it. Merchants who are cooperating with the Jay-Cees deserve your expressions of appreciation. These merchants have purchased blocks of tickets from the Junior Chamber to help underwrite the expenses. The tickets are in turn given to customers as they make their various purchases in the stores.

These tickets cost you nothing but they are mighty important as they make you eligible for the many fine prizes that are being awarded.

Between now and Aug. 26 be a picnic booster. Talk it up with your neighbors, with the relatives or anyone you think might be interested.

There's going to be fun for everyone, and the more who participate the more fun there will be.

Let's all join in boosting the Community Picnic with a goal of the best ever.

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

From my essay today I choose to argue that folks who have reached the age of 60 or 65 and have always paid their own way—no Govt. help—all on their own steam, should get a break on taxes. They have put their offshoots through school—they have paid all kinds of taxes, fool taxes and all kinds—they have accumulated their own security for their remaining years—will be no drain on the Govt. These folks should be honored—they are of prime stock.

We lend aid to the world—billions of gifts go to the far corners of the earth—to people of all tongues—to people we know but little about—and what happens. Right here our own people get the brush-off. Figures coming out of old Prodigal-town show that to reduce all individual tax bills for young and old, by an amount equal to 10 percent of dividends received, would amount to 740 million. Can't be done, says Washington-town. But to people we would not know from Adam, we send 5 or 6 or 7 billion—and no questions asked. To reduce the income taxes for only those of 60 and upwards—who have been no burden on Sambo—would be chicken feed.

Being world minded is one thing but shoot-in-square with our own folks is where charity begins. That is pretty strait and brisk thinking, says Henry. Thank you, I says, and I am happy to see you are catching on—finally—your ownself.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

There many different phases in the line of duty of a policeman as officer Mike Good will verify. Saturday evening he rescued a runaway canary on Main Street, then took it home to shelter until the owner showed up to identify it.

You know, I believe Gwennie Kramer is mad at me — — — the last time she made tuna fish salad, I didn't get my portion — — — — — Okay Gwennie, I won't come out up your cottage, and drink your beer, anymore.

By the way, did anyone of you, see the post card "Cappy" Mumma got from a friend at the seashore — — — It's a pip. It gives one like shakes.

What's wrong Myrtle, I don't see your name in this column anymore — — — — — It must have been Fred that put you in here, and not the breakfast gang you a-ways blamed.

A young lady from town told us she gets so excited the day before she goes on a journey that she gets ill. So this week when she started her vacation, she went a day early.

Some of these new pint sized homes are so small the occupants can't find room for complaint.

The day after a man gave his wife a diamond ring, she pawned it, bought a revolver, and shot him. It just doesn't pay to be nice to some women.

While visiting at a Salunga home the small son of the family came up to his Mother and shyly asked: Do you want me to tell you a story, mommy?

His mother replied: Yes, that would be fine. Son, it's a short one. Mother, That doesn't matter. Son, You won't get mad? Mother, Of course not. Why should I? Son, All right then. Once there was a beautiful big vase that came all the way from China. But now it's in pieces, I just hit it with a golf ball.

Philosopher Enck says: "Sizes are deceiving. Sometimes a woman's thumb has a man under it."

Zoo Manager: "What does that young fellow want?" Assistant Manager: "He wants the story on the recent additions to the polar bear family." Manager: "Another of those cub reporters, eh?"

If a buttercup is yellow then a hiccup must be purple!

Here's a poem Russ Sumpman, Sr. sent us: We bought seat covers for the car. They brighten its interior. The only trouble is they are Too slick for my posterior!

A traveling salesman was registered at a Columbia hotel and a bedbug crawled slowly across the page. "Well," he said, "I've been bitten by all sorts of bugs in hotels, but this is the first time I ever saw one come down to see what room I'd be in."

Get this — — — The stick is one of the mystics. And inhabits a number of districts: It doesn't yield plumes Or sing any tunes. But helps out with vital statistics.

Trying to rest after an exceedingly hard day, a local father was being bedeviled by an endless stream of unanswered questions from little Willie.

"What do you do down at the office?" the youngster finally asked. "Nothing," shouted father. It looked as if the boy had been put off for a while, but not for long. After a thoughtful pause, Willie inquired: "Pop, how do you know when you're through?"

One of our golfers, inordinately proud of his golf scores, took his mother-in-law with him to the course one day. After depositing her on a bench, he and a chum started for the first tee. There Niblick announced, "I want to make a good, long drive now. My mother-in-law is watching from the bench outside the clubhouse."

"Why, that's almost 300 yards!" his chum cried. "You couldn't possibly hit her from here."

It is rumored that Hollywood is now working on a 3-D film that if you don't go into the theatre to see it, it comes out to see you.
