Mortuary Record
JOSEPH E. SCHROLL
 Joseph Eugene Schroll, fourteenth month, son of Thomas R. and Martha G. Shank Schroll, 35 Detwiler St., Mt. Joy, died at 10:45 a. m. October 8 at the Lancaster General Hospital after an illness of three days.
 He was a member of the Cradle Roll department of the Mt. Joy Church of God.
 Besides his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Suzanne and Louise, and a brother, Thomas, all at home. His paternal grandmother, Mrs. Frances D. Schroll, Mount Joy; and his maternal grandparents, Daniel S. and Matilda Grumelin Shank of Sporting Hill, Manheim R.D., also survive.
 Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, October 13, 1953.

MRS. PENROSE BARD
 Mrs. Lizzie M. Bard, 76, wife of Penrose S. Bard, died at her home, Mount Joy R2, yesterday at 8:30 p.m. after an illness of two years. The couple celebrated their fifty-third wedding anniversary on April 14.
 She was born in Manor Twp., a daughter of the late Albert and Ida McClane Harmon and was a member of Salem E. U. B. Church, Manheim. Besides her husband she is survived by four sons, Penrose A., Manheim, Clarence C., Mount Joy; John W., Neffsville, and Ambrose H., at home, also 12 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren and three sisters, Elsie, wife of Willis Kreider, Lancaster R4; Margie, wife of Lloyd Kaufman, and Alva Harman, Columbia R1.
 Funeral services were held Sunday, Oct. 9.

DR. J. T. HERR
 Dr. John Trout Herr, 67, who started the practice of medicine Jan. 13, 1912, died Monday at his home in Landisville, following an illness of several years.
 He resided for the past 60 years in the same home where he maintained his office and residence. He used a horse and buggy for the first three years of practice, and a sleigh in winter, buying an automobile in 1915.
 Dr. Herr was born on a farm near Lancaster, a son of the late John Eckert and Anna Trout Herr. He attended public school at Landisville and later entered Franklin and Marshall academy, graduating in 1905. He studied at F & M college for two years, then entered the University of Maryland School of Medicine, graduating in 1910.
 For the following year he served his internship at St. Joseph's Hospital and took post graduate work at Children's Hospital, Philadelphia, and also at Hahnemann Hospital in Philadelphia before entering private practice.
 Because of his extreme interest in fulfilling his duties as a physician, Dr. Herr took little or no interest in political or social organizations and had no hobbies or specific recreations to follow during whatever off duty hours he had.
 However, for about 10 years and in a direct line with his work, he served as a medical inspector for several schools in a number of nearby townships soon after this service was inaugurated in the school system of Lancaster county.
 Dr. Herr was a member of the staff of St. Joseph's hospital since serving his internship there and also served as medical director at the Oreville Mennonite Home for over 40 years.
 His professional affiliations included the American Medical Association and the Lancaster County Medical Society of which he served as president in 1936.
 Besides his wife, the former Katharine Kauffman, he is survived by a daughter, Anna Mary, elementary music supervisor at the Lansdowne public school; and a brother, Harry T., Landisville.
 Funeral services were held Wednesday, Oct. 14.

Hi-School Corner
 By S. A. S.
 The students of the ninth grade have been studying Shakespeare and have started a really interesting project. All of them, in the class, are in some way to do a project to depict something of Shakespeare.
 Some of the projects that have so far been turned in are really unusual. Priscilla Lane made a miniature theatre of the Shakespearean type. One of the plays they've been studying is "The Merchant of Venice." Some of the kids have drawn pictures showing certain characters or a certain scene from this play. Barbara Thome dressed a doll in the costume of Portia, a character in this particular play.
Band Officers Chosen
 The band officers have been chosen for a year and they are as follows:
 Pres. Pat Schroll, Vice-pres Bob Fish, Secretary, Miriam Tyndall and Treasurer, Connie Lane.
 The band marched in the parade to open the fair, Oct. 14, and will also play Friday, Oct. 16.
Magazine Campaign
 I'm sure the results of the magazine campaign are of interest to everybody.
 For Crowell-Collier the total sales were $628.90 with the Juniors selling the most at $52.35 worth. Then came the Seniors selling $47.21.
 The Curtis results are as follows: Total sold—$987.75 with the Juniors again ahead, selling $296.15 and again the Seniors second having sold $186.30 worth.
 The total sales of the school as a whole was $1,616.65. I'm sure everybody will agree that was a good showing all the way around.

Assembly Program
 The assembly program for Friday turned out to be quite different from the usual ones, but loads of fun. It started out by a film called, "Let's All Sing," which turned out to be a group sing which everybody really enjoyed.
 Then came "Homes Unlimited," showing what progress has been made in the building of our modern day homes. And what an important part free enterprise has played in this Country.
 Comics of old movies were shown in the last film called "Muddled Mud." It really gave everybody quite a laugh to see what people once went to see at our movie theatres thruout the Country.
