

OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

Farm show week never fails to be "visiting" week too. Folks come to town that you only bump into once a year and that is at the farm show. There's always a lot of "fat chewed" and you catch up on news about old neighbors that you lost track of.

Tom Stohler has been enrolled in the "Absent-minded professors club." Last week one day he drove his car to work at the shoe factory - - - when it came time to go home for dinner, - - - you guessed it, he walked home and back, forgetting he had taken his car that morning.

Sam Dock told me that they are going to fight the "Battle of Bunker Hill" over again - - - he said it wasn't on the level.

Ed Keen tells one about the "little bee" but that one isn't printable.

Willie approached a pretty girl, sitting at a table, down at Frankie's Inn the other night, and remarked to her: "Baby I could fall for you." - - - stepping away from the table backwards, he did just that - - - fell over his own feet!

An old timer was leaning against a post near the New Germantown store when a big new handsome car drove up. A young man stepped out and asked breezily, "Well, pop, how long has this town been dead?"

The old timer looked over the stranger for a moment without saying anything, then drawled: "Not extra long, I reckon. You're the first buzzard to come around."

In our estimation here is the height of illegibility—a doctors prescription written with a post office pen in a rumble seat of a second hand car.

A sixth grader from out Mastersonville way says his Uncle Lem isn't exactly a liar, but when feedin' time comes he has to get somebody else to call the hogs for him.

Dud Hurley says, "Another reason you can't take it with you—it goes before you do."

Two little urchins stood with their noses pressed against the barber shop window. "Gee, Bobbie, look at that one," said one, as he spied a barber wielding a singeing taper. "He's lookin' for 'em with a light!"

We hope to live long enough to see some day a steam shovel absent-mindedly reach over and scoop up a dipperful of spectators.

Russ Sumpman says he loves exercises. - - - Every morning he touches his shoes with his fingertips, 25 times. Then he takes the shoes off the dresser and puts 'em on.

It seems that an old gal of uncertain vintage from Manheim was having a check-up by her doctor. Upon being asked her age, replied coyly, "Oh, I never tell anyone my age, but as a matter of fact, I've just reached twenty-one."

"Indeed, said the doctor, "What detained you?"

3-D is supposed to give movies depth and reality. Maybe the engineers have accomplished what the writers haven't been able to.

Over the back fence: Neighbor: "I hear your oldest daughter won a prize at business college for dictation." Pop: "Yes, that kid gets more like her mother every day!"

CONGRATULATION STUDENTS

Congratulations students of the Mount Joy, East Donegal and Marietta High Schools. Through all the difficulties that our new high school has been having, the general opinion is that it will take at least five to ten years to drown out the three schools for each other.

You've proved the general opinion wrong already. Thru your meetings of ring committees and jacket committees, you have proven that you're ready to make Donegal Joint School a successful and happy school the first year.

Rings and jackets have been chosen for the class of 1954 and 1955 of the Donegal Joint School. A committee of four students of the junior class of each school met with representatives of three ring companies in a special meeting to choose an official ring for the new high school.

The committee took the suggested rings to their respective schools for a vote of the students. The students' votes were counted together, not as a separate schools and a majority greater than two thirds was realized. The ring chosen is a ring with a large "D" and a ribbon-effect metal piece beneath perpendicular to the D which says Donegal.

Sophomores of the three schools held similar meetings and decided that the class colors of the class of '55, Donegal Joint School, will be blue and white and decided on the purchase of blue and white corduroy jackets.

THANK YOU

Hats off to the JayCees for the fine parade last evening. It was certainly one that Mount Joy can be proud to have had. Our thanks go to the organizations and clubs who spent time on floats to make the parade a success.

May we especially say "thank you" to the merchants who placed floats and sponsored items in the affair.

Birthday Bouquet Made By W. G. Mueller

Warren Mueller, Elizabethtown (formerly Mt. Joy R.I.) made the only birthday bouquet for the President Eisenhower Birthday Party Tuesday at Hershey.

The bouquet was the gift of the Pennsylvania Flower Growers Association of which Mr. Mueller has been a member for the past two years.

This gift was yellow pom-poms and white chrysanthemums with red oak leaves and huckleberry foliage and was placed in the living room in the Hotel Hershey.

In addition to the bouquet, four "Mamie" carnations were placed at the base of the bouquet. "Mamie" carnations are a new kind of carnation, white with a red streak running through it. The new flower was named by the national carnation association in honor of Mrs. Eisenhower.

Mr. Mueller not only made the birthday bouquet, but he entered the presidential suite at the hotel to place the bouquet and arrange the coffee table with the other flowers and huckleberry foliage.

4H CLUBS TO SPONSOR ROLLER SKATING PARTY

A roller skating party will be held Wednesday, Oct. 21, 7:30 p.m. at Rocky Springs Roller Skating Rink. The affair is being sponsored by the 4H Clubs. Skating parties will be held each third Wednesday of the month until the end of April. All 4H'ers are invited.

WINNING FARM—The farm of Victor N. Engle, Mount Joy, R.D. 1, was the winning farm in the Farm Photo Quiz last week. The farm is located on the back road from Mount Joy to Salunga, southeast of Mount Joy. Mr. Engle lives on the farm which has been in the Engle family since 1830.

Fat Collection Set For November 7 In Mt. Joy And Florin

A fat collection has been planned for Mount Joy and Florin by the Girl Scout Neighborhood of Mt. Joy and Florin, for Saturday, Nov. 7. The rain date for the drive will be Saturday, Nov. 14.

At the recent meeting, it was also decided that the girls will attend the First Presbyterian church Sunday, Oct. 25. Scouts are asked to meet at 10:30 a.m. outside the church. Girls are asked to wear uniforms if possible.

It was reported that 108 girls attended the day camp held this spring with 8 leaders. The group decided to purchase tents with part of the money remaining from the camp. Since day camp was held several camping supplies have disappeared from the Scout house; one leather punch and 2 axes. Anyone having these articles are asked to return them to the Scout house at once.
