

OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

Frank "Scatty" Shreve has a financial problem - - - while he was attending the fair two weeks ago he discovered that he had two tickets in his possession (good for 20c in merchandise) when the party was over - - - "Scatty" was quite perturbed, he said he would ask for a refund, and if the tickets were not redeemable, he would offer them to someone at half price - - - after all, 20c cents is 20c.

"Willie" Enck suggested that he keeps them - - - he said they may hold a raffle at Staufferstown, some time, and he could use them there.

"Cappy" Mumma gave me one for the "Owl" but darn if I can remember any more, what it was - - - I think it had something to do with that brand new (1942) Chevy, that "Bill" Waltz, local mason, bought - - - maybe I'll think of it till next week.

My neighbor just won't believe that more than 5,000 elephants go each year to make our piano keys. He says you can't teach those big animals to do such tedious work - - - Who's laughing? I don't think it's funny either, but I've got to fill the column.

A fellow uptown has trouble with his two year old every time he has to baby sit. He always climbs out of his playpen and the old man don't even get a chance to look at the paper. The other night I walked in and he had found a solution. He put barbed wire all around the top of the pen.

The teacher played the Star Spangled Banner and asked her first grade class to identify it. "That's easy," shouted a pupil from a back seat. "It's what they play every Friday on TV just before the fights."

This we got from a Freshman: A professor of physiology was describing the organs of sense, etc., and finally asked for a summary of his lecture. The star of the class arose and said: "Well, Professor, as I see it, I see with my eye organ, I hear with my ear organ, I smell with my nose organ, I eat with my mouth organ, and I feel with my hand organ."

It seemed to the people on the south side of Marietta Ave. that the Christmas rush started a bit early this year when they discovered their mailboxes stuffed with letters delivered by auxiliary helpers. Bill Roberts and Josie Bennett. It seems though, at the same time Bill's Mother was missing the box of letters Bill's dad wrote to her while he was in the service. (Most of the letters were recovered!)

Jay Meckley says there's one consolation to being a plumber even though you work hard and long hours. - - - You have pipe dreams every night.

Red Metzler says he lives in too nice a neighborhood! He knows a dilly of a practical joke and there isn't anybody around him mean enough to play it on.

A motorist was helping his extremely fat victim to rise. "Couldn't you have gone around me? growled the victim. "Sorry," murmured the motorist sadly, "I wasn't sure I had enough gasoline."

Some men don't know where the next dollar's coming from any more than their wives know where it's going.

Let's have those deer stories fellas. Who all got their shirt tail cut off and why?

WHY NOT SIGNS?
THE OTHER DAY A TRUCK driver stopped and asked what town he was in. Of course, we told him quickly enough, but the incident certainly started the old wheels aturnin'.

WHY SHOULD ANYONE ENTERING Mount Joy have to ask what town he's in.
Thought maybe it would be a good idea to find out. So I hopped in the car and took a little ride. Came into the borough on just about any road you could name.

ONLY ON THE MAIN HIGHWAY did there appear to be anything resembling a sign to designate Mount Joy. And those signs at either end of the borough are so blomin' small that you have to look pretty hard to read what they say. And on the other roads coming into the borough there's just nothing.

HARDLY SEEMS FIT AND proper for a nice respectable community like Mount Joy to be so shy. Folks coming through should know where they are. Every road coming into the borough should have a sign designating the community. It wouldn't hurt one bit to go further than that.

WHY NOT ADVERTISE THE Borough of Mount Joy "as a good place to live and do business" and invite folks to make this their home and encourage more business to locate here.

THEN LET'S CONSIDER THE safety angle a bit. The signs could politely inform motorists that traffic laws are enforced and urge them to drive carefully.

SHOPPING TIP
LOTS OF FOLKS HAVE AN idea that they have to do their Christmas shopping in a larger community than Mount Joy. That's really a misconception.

TAKE A TIP FROM ONE who visits your stores week after week. The merchants in Mount Joy carry a far greater stock than most people would realize. You can fill almost any Christmas gift need you can name right here in Mount Joy.

THE CONVENIENCE OF DOING your shopping right here in your own community cannot be measured. Parking facilities are ample. The selection of merchandise is extraordinarily good this year. Prices are right. And you are dealing with your friendly hometown merchant.

WHEN YOU BUY IN YOUR own community, you are dealing with folks who are interested in you as a person as well as a customer, folks whose very business depends on day-by-day honest, courteous, considerate treatment of those who come into their places of business.

AT BEST THE HOLIDAYS are busy days when time is at a premium. You can save hours of time by shopping right at home. Just think! No pushing through crowds, no bucking heavy traffic.

YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING actually can be fun when you do it in your hometown stores.

News Items From E. D. Twp. School

The popular Latinaires of E. Donegal and Marietta High Schools returned to Mount Joy for the fourth time Tuesday, December 1, 1953. They provided the entertainment at the Mt. Joy Lions Club's regular meeting at Hostetter's Banquet Hall. This group of musicians have made numerous public appearances since their organization 2 years ago. The present members are: Stephen Doles, Sara Jane Portner, Gary Zeller, Ronald Hawthorne, Sam Zuch, Scott Carpenter, and the pianist, Mr. Stanley Dotterer. More instruments are to be added during the year according to the present plans of Mr. Morrell Shields the director.

The Y-Teens and Hi-Y organizations sponsored a Roller Skating Party at Middletown Thursday, Dec. 3, at 7:30 to 10:30 p. m. The party was for the township school students and their friends. Miss Nancy Selomridge, Mrs. Vera Gingrich, Richard Yohn and John Hart were the chaperones. The faculty advisor for the Y-Teens is Mrs. Gingrich, and the faculty advisor for the Hi-Y is Stanley Dotterer.

John Smaling, field representative of the Lancaster Office of the Federal Security Administration addressed the Senior Problems of Democracy classes Wednesday, Dec. 2.

He explained how the Social Security Program operates, especially as it relates to securing coverage and applying for the various benefits. Mr. C. A. S. Hollinger was in charge of the program.

Edward Richter, guidance counselor, presents the following guidance report.

To date approximately half of the senior class have received their interviews. These interviews are mainly centered around plans for next year for each student. The tenth grade has been given a mental maturity test and the ninth grade has been given an intelligence test.

The result of these tests better acquaint the faculty with a student's scholastic problems.

In addition to the above, the seventh and the ninth graders have had youth inventory questionnaires to complete. These questionnaires bring out problems that the student is facing.
