

SANTA TO VISIT SCHOOL
The local elementary school has decorated for the holidays. All the windows on the first floor are decorated with snowmen and the second floor has an assemblage of churches, Christmas trees, stars and snow. Santa Claus will visit each room and distribute candy and fruit before Christmas.

HOME TO HAVE OPENHOUSE
The Daniel and Elizabeth Danner Home for the Aged in Manheim is completed and the public is invited to attend an openhouse. Saurday's openhouse hours will be 1 to 9 p. m. and Sunday's will be 2 to 5 p. m.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Hendrix, 210 East Main St., Mount Joy, announce the birth of a boy Friday in the St. Joseph's Hospital. The baby was named Larry Eugene and weighed six pounds 15 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Martin, Mount Joy, announce the birth of a daughter at the Lancaster General Hospital Monday.

SCHOOL EARNS FREE SPORTS EQUIPMENT

Enough points were earned during the last two weeks through sales slips to receive two soft balls and one baseball bat for the Mount Joy Elementary School. Persons who shop at the Acme store are asked to save their sales slips and either place them in the box inside the door or send them to the school with the students.

Each 25c purchase is worth 1 point toward sports equipment given by the Acme Company. At the present time, 11,455 points have been received.

PENNA'S PACKAGE FUND STARTS

This year 15,000 packages will be distributed in private, county, state and government hospitals in Pennsylvania, including veterans returned from Korea. No one is forgotten at Christmas time. This program costs approximately $50,000 and the state department depends on the posts, units and membership to make money contributions to cover the program.

Any members who wish to help make this project successful may send a donation to The American Legion, 1825 North Front Street, Harrisburg and mark it Hospital Package Fund.

Six Men Added To Old Timers Sports List

Six men have been added to the Old Timers line-up for the Old Timers basketball game to be held in the Mount Joy High School Tuesday evening, Dec. 29. Those added to the line-up are Richard Dellinger, George Brown, II, Charles Bennett, Jr., James Pennell, James Beamerderfer and Russel Halbleib. Three more players have been added to the alumni line-up: Gerald Bender, Wilbur Lindemuth and James Metzler.

William Jones, Lancaster, who refereed in past years and starred on the Franklin and Marshall basketball team and the old Lancaster Auditorium five, will referee a portion of the Old Timers Game.

William Ellis, who refereed the first game in Mt. Joy in November of 1915 of the Mount Mount Joy five, will toss out the first ball.

A collection will be taken instead of the regular admission charged at high school games. Proceeds will go toward the Rams award fund. Old Timers' practice nights are Monday evening, December 14 and Monday evening, December 21, 7 p. m.

Scouts And Brownies To Do Caroling

Plans were made by all the leaders in Mount Joy for Christmas caroling. The leaders decided that their troops would all sing at the local community Christmas tree on the corner of East Main Street and Marietta Avenue. All members of the seven local troops are invited to carol Monday evening, December 21, from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Frank Young Jr., is in charge of the affair.

Mortuary Record

MRS. FRANK H. FLETCHER
Mrs. Daisy I. Haines Fletcher, 71, of Mount Joy R2, widow of Frank H. Fletcher, died at the St. Joseph's Hospital at 5:45 a. m. Saturday, after a short illness. She was born in Newtown, Columbia R1, a daughter of the late Nehemiah and Anna Shenk Haines. She was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, at Maytown. These children survive: Paul, Columbia; Frank H. Jr., Mt. Joy R2; and Mrs. Anna Houseal, Marietta R1; also 18 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren and three brothers, John Haines, Mount Joy R2; and William and Abram Haines, Columbia R2.

She was buried Wednesday afternoon, at 2 p. m.

Historian Is Seeking Missing Minute Book

While Benjamin Groff prepared the histories of the various years of the Walter S. Ebersole Post 185, Mt. Joy, he could not locate one of the minute books. His search continued and the minute book is still missing.

Mr. Groff makes the request that if any members, past members, officers, and especially past adjutants would know anything about the missing books, will he please get in touch with him. The minutes included within the missing book are from 1926 to 1934.

CANTATA TO BE PRESENTED

The Christmas Cantata, "The Christ Child", by C. B. Hawley, will be presented this coming Sunday evening at 7:30, in the Washington Street Church of the Brethren, Elizabethtown, by the Senior Choir of the Church, and selected members of the Elizabethtown College Chorus. Professor Nevin W. Fisher will conduct, and Donald Golden will be the organ accompanist. Soloists include Marian Myers, Soprano, Gloria Gladfelder, Mezzo Soprano, Ruth Anne Butterbaugh, Soprano, and Paul Rice, Baritone, and a Mixed Quartet composed of Marian Meyer, Evelyn Bell, Walter Gingrich, and Robert G. Coble. These two musical groups join each year in a presentation of music suitable to the Christmas season.

Never store or bring gasoline, benzine, paint remover, or similar volatile flammable liquids in the house for any purpose.
