MISS YVONNE BRUBAKER

Rotary Speaker To Start Boys Home In Penna.

Walter Hayman, who left the Presidential honor guard to devote his life to the building of boys, addressed Mount Joy Rotarians at their luncheon Tuesday noon.

He gave interesting accounts of his experiences which took him from a career as an investigator for the Pennsylvania State police, to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and then to the President's Honor Guard, in which he served under President Franklin D. Roosevelt and President Harry S. Truman.

In 1946 Mr. Hayman resigned his post to become associated with the work closest to his heart, that of rebuilding boys who run afoul of the law. The speaker gave numerous examples of accomplishments at Youth Haven, Muskegon, Mich.

After several years at Youth Haven, Mr. Hayman was called back to his native Pennsylvania by a group of individuals interested in organizing a similar project here. Plans are nearing completion for the opening of the New Life Boys' Ranch, near Harleysville.

With a large country estate as the nucleus for the project, Mr. Hayman and his associates are at work raising funds to complete arrangements for purchase of the site. They hope to reach their goal, which at present is only $6,000 away, so that they can begin operation of the ranch this spring.

The plan calls for the erection of ranch-type homes with 16 boys to a unit, each boy having his own room. Each unit will have a Christian couple as "father and mother." The school will be conducted on Christian principles with the purpose of giving to the boys a Christian home life, lack of which, Mr. Hayman points out, is responsible for them going astray.

The speaker implored his audience to "wake up and wake up fast" to their responsibilities toward the youth of the country.

Mike Good Forces Car To Curb As Bullets Fly

Quick thinking of Policeman Mike Good brought a tipsy motorist's joy ride to an abrupt end in Mount Joy Monday afternoon.

Driving west in the borough's squad car, Officer Good stopped for the red light at the New Haven street signal when he saw a man get out of a car and step to the door of another car (headed east) also stopped at the light.

When the light changed, the car started to pull away and shots were fired. By this time, Officer Good was in motion. He pulled around through the service station drive, and, seeing his opportunity, cut in front of the car forcing it to the curb.
