The Mid-Winter meeting of Maytown Elementary School Parents Club will be held Monday, January 25 at 7:45 p. m. in the high school auditorium. Samuel Horst, chief of Pennsylvania Dept. of Farm and Home Safety will be the principal speaker of the evening. Music for the meeting will be furnished by the Parent's Club Mens Chorus. Refreshments will be served by the fourth grade mothers. The meeting will be in charge of Rev. John Hiestand, president of the club.

Ross Eshleman, a senior, was successful in the Southern District Band tryouts at Harrisburg January 9 and has been chosen to play second trumpet. He will play at Manheim Central High School under the direction of Paul Van Bodegraven, guest conductor. If he obtains a high rating at Manheim, he will then have the opportunity to play in the Eastern State Band at Norristown.

Four student council members and an advisor will go to Manheim Central High School to attend the annual conference of High School Student Councils January 22. The four students are: Ann Young, leader; Barbara Martin, sec'y; Peggy Wolfe and Nelson Hess. These people will attend an assembly program following registration, group discussion, a dinner and a dance. Their duty is to report back to our student council any suggestions they may have learned.

The shorthand students showed a response when given an invitation by their teacher, Mrs. Betty Lutze, to correspond in Gregg Shorthand with students in other states.
