Hymn Hit Parade Planned By Hood

A "Hit Parade of Favorite Hymns" will be the feature of Saturday evening's evangelistic service to be held in the St. Mark's Evangelical United Brethren Church in conjunction with the Mount Joy Church of God and Methodist Church.

Samuel Hood, guest director of music, will be in charge of the parade. He will present the ten most popular hymns according to polls taken throughout the country. Starting from the tenth and working toward the No. 1 favorite, some will be sung by the congregation, some played on the organ, vibra harp and piano.

Tuesday evening will be Sunday School Night. All Sunday School classes of the three churches will attend the services in a group. Services will continue under the direction of the Rev. Joseph Brookshire, evangelist of Louisville, Ky. He formerly spoke at the Landisville Camp Meeting for the past three years.
Services will continue to be held nightly, except Mondays until Sunday, February 14.

Florin Women Plan Meatloaf Supper

A meat loaf dinner will be held Saturday evening, February 20, it was announced at the regular monthly meeting of the Florin Fire Company Auxiliary Monday evening. The dinner will be served at the Florin Hall building from 4:00 to 8:00 p. m. Dinner will be $1 including dessert.

The group also decided to hold an orange social at the next regular meeting in March. The women wish to extend thanks to all those who helped make their recent food sale a success. Mrs. Benjamin Staley, president, was in charge of the meeting.
