

News Items From E. D. Twp. School

The senior class has decided to take a three day Colonial Virginia Tour on April 1, 2 and 3. The class will leave York by Pennsylvania Railroad and when they arrive in Baltimore they will have a complete tour of Annapolis, ending with the witnessing of the Middies at afternoon drill.

The Old Bay Line will then take the "land-lubber" seniors on an all night cruise to Norfolk, Virginia.

After debarking at Norfolk, the tour will be to such places as Yorktown, Williamsburg and many other historic places of interest. While in Richmond, the class will stay at the Hotel Richmond. On the way back to good old Pennsylvania, the seniors will have a short tour of our nation's capitol at Washington, D. C.

The chaperons will be four teachers - Mrs. Mary Emma Llewellyn, Mrs. Betty J. Luze, Edward Richter, and Stanley Dotterer.

Thirty-seven junior and senior high girls, under the supervision of Miss Jo-Anne Durnick, will be the guests of Mt. Joy High School on Saturday, February 27, to participate in a basketball play day. Girls from East Donegal and Marietta as well as girls from Mount Joy, will play basketball from nine to twelve. After the games the girls will socialize while they eat their bar lunches and drink chocolate milk.

The parents of the sixth grade pupils of the Maytown Elementary School will hold a Food Sale at Arnold's Garage, Maytown, Saturday morning, February 20 at 10 o'clock. The parents will have for sale vegetable soup and chicken corn soup which will be sold by the quart. Persons purchasing soup are asked to bring their containers. Also for sale will be homemade cookies, cakes and pies as well as many other kind of baked food.

All parents are requested to have their donations at the garage by 9:45 a. m.
