Marietta School News

May Queen Selected
Miss Shirley Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Landis Myers, was elected by vote of the student body to reign as May Queen at the May Day exercises to be held at the Marietta Public School, May 6, 1954. Shirley, a senior, has been active in many school functions—as cheerleader, editor of the yearbook, a member of Student council, and a member of the National Honor Society. She took a leading role in the class play and recently was selected to receive the D.A.R. Good Citizen Award.

Runner-up in votes was Miss Doris Hummel, also a senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hummel. Doris will serve as maid-of-honor to the Queen. She also is a cheerleader, a member of the Student Council, a member of the band, and class editor of the yearbook.

In the court will be four senior girls—Shirley Bailer, Alice Flowers, Elise Weiden, and Dawn Zink—and two junior girls, Becky Zuch and Sara Jane Portner. Escorts will be Richard Baker, Robert Eckman, Harold Kulman, Ronald Ney, Charles Seaman, Lanny Libhart, Claude Fahringer, and William Fahringer.

Kathleen Hamlin Writes Winning Essay
Kathleen Hamlin has submitted the prize-winning essay for Marietta High School, entitled "Selling as a Career," in a recent essay contest sponsored by the Sales Executive Club of Lancaster County. Second prize went to Sara Jane Portner and third prize was won by Sonja Carver.

The first and second prize winners and their teacher, John Buch, and the principal, Ralph Coleman, will attend a banquet at the Hotel Brunswick, March 5, 1954. Meanwhile the essays submitted by each school will be judged for county winner. Awards will be made at the banquet.

Baseball Clinic Scheduled
A baseball clinic will be held in the Millersville State Teachers College Junior High School gymnasium at Millersville, on Saturday, Feb. 27, at 12:30 p. m.

The instructors will be Ira Thomas and Joseph O'Rourke, coaches of the Philadelphia A's ball team and Bernard Guest, farm director of the Phila. A's.

This clinic is sponsored by the P.I.A.A. District 3 Committee and is open to all coaches and players of baseball. Town team players interested may also attend. Please contact Hubert Peters of Marietta High School.

GIRL SCOUTS TO COLLECT FAT FEBRUARY 27

Girl Scouts will collect waste fat in Mount Joy and Florin on Saturday, February 27. The Scouts will start at 9:00 a. m.

If there is any housewife who is not customarily visited by the girls in their collections, a phone call to Mrs. Clinton G. Eby would be appreciated. The girls in the four troops in Florin and seven troops in Mount Joy have had their street assignments revised.
