 The team and Coach would like to thank those people who stayed with them all the way. The coach cannot recall the names but many people told him to tell the boys they were behind them win or lose. We, as a team and coach, are sincerely gratified to have these people tell the coach this even though his team was trailing by 16 points at that moment.
 Coach Houck salutes the loyal Mount Joy fans. The team will strive to carry the name of Mount Joy to the top; But win or lose we know you are back of us 100 percent.
 Your cheering during the 2nd half carried the Rams to victory. It was a great team victory. Not one single player can be pointed as the outstanding player. The only bad thing that resulted from the game was the loss of a few more hairs from the head of the local coach.
 In the five years that Coach Houck has been with the team, Tuesday night's game marked the eighty-third win for his teams against twenty seven losses.

 member as having played on the Mount Joy Big Five basketball team of 1919. His first appearance on the Mount Joy team was in the old grade gym with its low ceiling. This did not stop him from getting nine field goals. He starred on the Lebanon High School football, basketball and baseball teams. Later, he attended University of Pennsylvania and captained the 1924 football team as well as starring on the basketball team. Later in the thirties, he coached the Franklin and Marshall football team of Lancaster.
 Invitations to the banquet will be issued April 1. The committee will solicit citizens in the near future to become patrons on the program. Citizens may contribute toward the entertainment especially for the athletes off the Mount Joy High School. Special emphasis will be given to the basketball team which, the committee feels, deserves a lot of credit for the brand of ball that they played.
 The Midget baseball team was referred to the committee on baseball. Chairman of this committee is George Brown, II. He is assisted by Bernard Kear, Richard Divet, Christ Walters, Russell Hableib, John Lichty, and William Zimmerman.
