

OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

Ever since George Reigle dug the scallions out of Harry Darenkamp's flower bed there's potatoes growing on the grape vines. — Confusing, isn't it? It sure beats me.

Home cooking is something too many women are not.

I was visiting a downtown father the other night while he baby-sat. He no sooner had the child in bed until it began to cry. Pop asked: "Now what are you crying for?" The child replied: "I wanna drink!" Dad answered: "So do I. Go to sleep!"

You often heard the expression "Taking candy from a baby" — Well "Frankie", the big wheel at the Farmers Inn, took pop corn away from his wife last week one evening. "Cappy" says he wants to starve her, but "Willie" disagrees. He said that "Frankie" wants his wife to keep her slender figure.

Loretta Garlin left her home one day last week with a very "bad taste in her mouth" — I'm told Loretta mistakenly used her brothers shaving cream to clean her teeth — I must agree with Loretta when she said "Ronnie" don't need shaving cream to take off the few whiskers he has, when a good stiff hair brush would rub them off easily.

A better idea Loretta, would be to have her brother Ronnie use toothpaste to shave with.

What we need in Washington is more diplomats who don't have a red scent.

Definition of World — a big ball that revolves on its taxes.

Too many fellows want their cake and somebody else's cookie, too.

Many a man finds that burning a candle at both ends makes it twice as hard to keep his wife in the dark.

Here's a garage gimmick to top all gimmicks. I was on a trip Sunday and had some car trouble. I stopped at a garage near Back Log and asked the mechanic: "What will it cost to fix my car?" He asked: "What's the matter with it?" I answered: "I don't know." He replied: "$39.75."

Did you ever see a woman so tired she could could hardly keep her mouth open?

O.K. — So nothing is funny when you're hungry or your feet hurt.

Two little shavers were sitting out at the park discussing their families, when the one remarked: "I don't really know who I am. You see, I was left on a dohrstep." His friend suggested: "Maybe you're a milk bottle!"

When you come to think of it — Life must be worth living after all. The cost has doubled and we still hang on.

Biggest laugh of the week. The new bridegroom from Manheim who was told to bring home some groceries. He stopped at a food store and demanded a "fifth of milk."

Remember — Flattery's like perfume — to be smelled, not swallowed.

Overheard on the Lancaster bus . . . "I just heard your husband in the hospital. What's the trouble?" Other wife: "It's his knee. I found a strange woman on it."

Some women are like blot- ters, they soak in all the gossip but get everything backwards.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mr. Beam:
I want to thank you for the remittance for the busses which transported the team, students and adults to New Wilmington, Pa., for the recent basketball play-off game.

First, I want to congratulate Coach George Houck for his fine basketball team this past season in reaching the spot in the final play-off game for the State Championship.

Second, I wish to express my sincere appreciation of the efforts of the business men of Mount Joy who made it possible for the pupils and residents of Mount Joy to witness this final game.

Next, I want to congratulate the student body of the Mount Joy High School for their fine conduct while being transported to New Wilmington. I found both the students and adults to be very cooperative in making this trip successful. Last, but not least, I want to thank you for your cooperation as I am sure that it was largely through your efforts that this trip was made possible.

Again, I want to thank you for the past favors, and I hope that you, the faculty and the student body enjoy your new school building which you will occupy in the near future, and that we might again have the pleasure of serving you in your transportation needs.

Respectfully yours,
Conestoga Transportation Co.

In reply to sports editor Geo. Kirchner, whose article appeared in the April 1 issue of the Lancaster newspaper, I will try to answer some of the questions he spoke of. I thought it would be better to answer through the medium of the Bulletin since the questions concern the local people more than county-wide interest.

1. The by-laws say that the award will be given to the outstanding athlete of Mount Joy High School. Therefore at the end of this year, the article died with the by-law.
2. The awards committee recommends to the organization against giving an award to Don egal on the same basis that we gave it to Mount Joy. Instead, if we so decide that any athlete is worthy of any sport and is outstanding, we may then grant an award but that would be up to the committee and not compulsory on the committee's part to do so.

3. Mr. Kirchner is right when he said that we don't want to go out of town with our banquet. Since this is an Mount Joy organization which is made up of the boys who helped to keep athletics alive for many years, we want to keep it here.

4. To be a member, anyone is eligible who helps in any way to foster sport, morally, financially or played in any sports.

I hope that I have answered some of the questions since I have had them put to me at various times.
