Circus Coming To Salunga - Landisville

A three-ring circus will be held Wednesday, May 12 by the Salunga and Landisville Fire Companies. Two shows will be held that day in the field between the two villages; a matinee at 3:00 p.m. and an evening show at 8:00 p.m.

Hospitality Day Scheduled

Hospitality Day will be held in historic Ephrata and northern Lancaster County Sunday, May 2 from 12:00 noon to 6:00 p.m. The affair open to the public is sponsored by the Woman's Club of Ephrata. Admission tickets may be purchased from any of the homes and include tea to be served. Eighteen homes, churches and religious settlements will be open for inspection during the afternoon. Antiques will be on display in each of the buildings.

Hospital Drive To Open Thursday, April 29

With a goal of $107,750.00, the 1954 General Hospital Drive opens officially on April 29, continuing until May 20. As in previous campaigns, all of the funds raised this year will be devoted to charity and replacement of vital hospital equipment.

Under the direction of the various divisional co-chairmen, hundreds of volunteer campaign workers have been enlisted to conduct business and residential canvasses throughout the city and county. This year's campaign is headed by general co-chairmen Simon A. Cantor and G. Theodore Storb, in cooperation with the hospital's board of directors.

MRS. BINGEMAN TO LECTURE AT F & M
 Mrs. J. W. Bingeman, Ambler, formerly of Mount Joy, will give an illustrated lecture on "Flowers and Fungi" at a meeting of the Muhlenberg Botanical Club Friday, 8:00 p.m. in the North Museum, Franklin and Marshall College campus. Mrs. Bingeman will use as illustrations a number of colored slides of flowers which she has taken.

TWO ARE DISCHARGED
 Two local boys have been discharged from the armed forces. Charles Hallgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ragner Hallgren, of Marietta Avenue, has been discharged from the U. S. Air Force and Franklin Zimmerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmerman, North Market St., has been discharged from the Navy.

GIRL HURTS ANKLE
 Geraldine Strickler, Lumber Street, was injured when she fell on the tennis courts at the borough park. After being treated at the Lancaster General hospital for a cracked ankle, she was returned to her home.
