Virginia Couple To Lead Institute

Dr. and Mrs. William G. Willoughby of the faculty of Bridgewater College, Bridgewater, Va. will be the guest leaders in the Annual Family Life Institute to be held in Washington Street Church of the Brethren, Elizabethtown, this coming Sunday. Dr. Willoughby is a member of the National Council of Family Relations and Chairman of the Rome and Family Life Committee of the Southeastern Region of the Church of the Brethren, and Mrs. Willoughby has spoken frequently in the field of home and family life. Included in the program are presentations to the youth and young adults during the 9:30 Church school hour, a sermon by Dr. Willoughby at the morning worship at 10:30 on the theme "Signs of Hope," an evening youth meeting at 6:30 and a closing discussion on "Family Magic" at 7:30. This Institute is sponsored annually by the Family Life Committee of the local Church composed of John Wenger, Chairman; Mrs. James M. Miller, Secretary; Mrs. Henry Hackman, Mrs. Henry G. Bucher, and Galen Kilhefner.

Eighth Graders To Be Honored By Post

Awards will be given in the Mount Joy and Hempfield High Schools to the outstanding boy and girl in the eighth grade. Jack Bennett will have charge of the Legion awards to the two boys in the two schools. Mrs. Lee Ellis, Americanism chairman, will have charge of the presentation of the two girls' awards in the two schools.

The ceremonies will be held Wednesday, May 19. The presentation will take place at 12:45 p.m. in Landisville and at 2:40 p.m. in Mount Joy. Legionnaires and auxiliary members are invited to attend these two services.

The Rev. John Gable, pastor of the Florin E.U.B. church and chaplain of Walter S. Ebersole Post 185, will be the guest speaker in the Mt. Joy School. The boys' awards will be given for honor, courage, scholarship, leadership and service and the girls' awards for character, service and scholarship.
