

OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

To distinguish vegetables from weeds, mow them all down and the ones that come up are weeds.

Some people would live strictly on a liquid diet if it wasn't for a few pretzels.

I stopped to bid good morning to a lady downtown, saying: "I'm sorry to hear that your husband is still sick in bed."

"Oh, there's no need to worry," she replied, cheerfully. "He is quite all right!"

"Why is he in bed then?" "Well it's like this," explained the lady: "When the doctor called about two months ago, he told my husband not to get up until he saw him again, and the doctor has joined the army."

I'm pretty much of a land lubber but just once I'd like to be an aviator and fly over the pigeons that peck us in this neighborhood.

A farmer near the Iron bridge who called his newly-employed hired man out of bed at 4 a.m. was surprised a few minutes later to see the man walking off down the road. "Hey," shouted the farmer, "come back here and eat your breakfast before you go to work."

"Who's going to work? I'm going to find a place where I can spend the night!"

Many wives who complain about dishpan hands can spend all afternoon in a heated swimming pool at a snooty resort.

This reminds me of the chick who claimed that bacteria was the rear of a cafeteria.

We heard a bank examiner, somewhere in the west, walked into a bank. There were no tellers, clerks, or cashiers. Finally he looked out the back door — there in the shade of a tree sat the four playing poker.

To teach them a lesson, he tripped the burglar alarm. . . . They never moved, but the bartender across the street came over with four beers.

The man who boasts that he runs things around the house is probably talking about the lawn mower.

"Well, Uncle Joe" the real estate man said to an old Negro who had just paid the last installment on a small farm, "I'll make you a deed to the farm now it's been paid for."

"Boss," the Negro replied, "if it's all de same to you, I wish you'd give me a mo'gage to de place."

The surprised real estate man protested that Uncle Joe didn't seem to know the difference between a deed and a mortgage.

"Well, mebbe not," said the Negro. "But I owned a farm once an' I had a deed an' de bank had a mo'gage, and de bank got de fahm!"

The only way to live off a garden is to live in it.

A speaker was lecturing on forest preservation. "I don't suppose," he said, "that there is a person in the house who has done a single thing to conserve our timber resources."

Silence ruled for several seconds, and then a meek voice from the rear of the audience timidly retorted: "I once shot a woodpecker."

Didja ever notice, how, for most recipes a woman goes to her neighbor for a cup of sugar and an earful of dirt?

Just remember — Prejudice is a wonderful time saver . . . you can form opinions without bothering to obtain the facts.

News Items From E. D. Twp. School

Since the band is probably the best public relations vehicle in a school system, there is a definite need for a parents' band club. A Donegal Joint High School Band Club is to be formed on Wednesday evening, May 26 at 7:30 p. m. This organizational meeting will be held in the East Donegal Township High School Auditorium, at which time parents of all band members in the entire area are invited to attend. All community minded citizens who are interested in this project are also invited.

The East Donegal Township High School Commencement will feature Cameron Ralston as its guest speaker.

Mr. Ralston, an internationally famous lecturer, is no long-haired theorist. He has had wide experience as Director of Public Forums of the U. S. Office of Education and as Founder of Youth Guidance Week Programs. He has served in many fields of human experience as coal miner, Boy Scout Camp Director, Cost Engineer, and Public Relations Counselor for State and National Organizations. Mr. Ralston has chosen as his intriguing lecture topic, "The Golden Tassel". Mr. Ralston will be introduced by J. Edward Charles, a member of the East Donegal Twp. Board of Education.

A short history of East Donegal School will be given by three orators of the graduating class, as follows: "East Donegal Past", Jacob Shenk; "East Donegal Present", Donald Wolgemuth; "East Donegal Future", Lovina Demmy. Musical selections will be rendered by Helen Elder, Ross Eshleman, Sarah Singer, and Paul Kauffman, all members of the graduating class.

The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held on Friday, May 14 in the library of the high school. In addition to the routine business, the board elected two new teachers, Miss Lilly Ann Greider, for grade two, Maytown and Mrs. Mildred R. Schlitzer for grade four, Maytown. A position in grade three, still remains open.

The contract for a room of new furniture was awarded to L. B. Herr & Son of Lancaster. It was also agreed by the board to replace the shrubbery along the property line of the Washington Elementary School at Florin with a fence.

Seventy-three students of the third and fourth grades of the Maytown elementary school will be taken to Lancaster via train by their teachers, Miss Ruth Eby, Mount Joy R1 and Mrs. Estie Bender, Florin.

After visiting the railroad station in Lancaster, the children will tour Holsum Bakery, Penn Dairies and the Franklin and Marshall Museum. Four mothers will also accompany the group.

LOCAL SAILOR TAKES PART IN EXERCISE

Taking part in Lantaglaux 54, the large scale Amphibious task force landing exercise near Camp Lejeune, N. C., late last month was James R. Mateer, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mateer of 636 N. Barbara Street, aboard the USS LST 1079.

The training exercise, involving more than 80 ships and some 60,000 Naval and Marine personnel, was climaxed by an assault landing on "aggressor-held" Onslow Beach.

The maneuvers were aimed to maintain the combat readiness and increase the battle efficiency of the participating naval elements and troops taking part.
