Mount Joy Group Assists Bazaar

Mrs. Jay Musser and Mrs. Frank Young are co-chairman for the Mount Joy Auxiliary of the Lancaster General Hospital United Auxiliaries annual bazaar and chicken barbecue to be held next Tuesday, May 25 in the court yard between the wings of the new hospital.

All the auxiliaries throughout Lancaster City and County are making plans to participate in the all-day event. The rain date is Wednesday, May 26.

Mrs. Elmer Z. Delph, of New Holland, announced that the affair will include a luncheon of soups, sandwiches, salads, and desserts and a chicken barbecue dinner to be served from 4-8 p.m. Barbecue tickets are now available through auxiliary chairman and will also be on sale in the court yard during the event. The Lancaster County Poultry Association will prepare the chicken in special barbecue pits erected on the grounds of the hospital court yard.

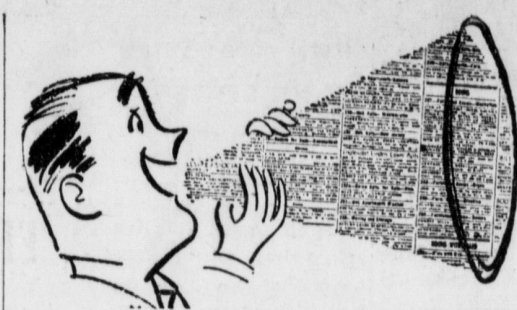

Among the booths for the bazaar will be those for the sale of aprons, infants' and children's clothes and toys, farm products, flowers and plants, candy, cakes, pies, Moravian mints, sugar cakes, gifts, and white elephants. There will also be special features for the children, an auction conducted by Claude Smith, Lincoln Highway East and a fortune teller's booth.

Donegal 4-H Club Elects Officers
Miss Barbara Martin was elected president of the Donegal 4-H Home Economics Club at the organizational meeting of the group Tuesday evening, May 18. Carol Ginder was chosen vice president; Arlene Heisey, secretary; Miriam Roland, treasurer; Doris Long, song leader; and Mary Simons, news reporter; Arlene Musser and Elizabeth Shoemaker, game leaders.

The group chose sewing as the year's project with first and second year interests. All the 4-H clubs of the county will attend an evening church service at the St. Mark's E.U.B. church, Mt. Joy, Sunday, June 6, at 7:30 p. m. with Miss Yvonne Cook, advisor. Leaders of the local club are Miss Jane Roland and Mrs. Lewis Bixler.

May 20 Is Start Of Thank You Week
Red Feather Thank You Week from May 23rd to May 29th will give the twenty Red Feather Agencies in the Community Chest a chance to express their gratitude to all those in Lancaster County from border to border who contributed money and services during last Fall's campaign.

Louis G. Milan, Chairman of Thank You Week, announces that the week's activities will be centered around posters made by members and participants in the Agencies. These posters will be displayed in the store windows along with Pequea Pete posters left from the last campaign and overprinted "Thanks". Television, radio and newspaper stories will also be built around them and the children who made them.
