Seven To Give Organ Recital

An organ recital will be given in the Mount Joy High School Auditorium Sunday afternoon, May 23, 3:00 p. m. by the organ students of Mrs. Ethel M. Broske.

The recital will include organ solos by well-known composers and two piano and organ duets. Seven Mount Joy High School students will be participating. They are Patsy Mumper, Asher Halbleib, Julia Loewen, Lynne Fackler, Carol Ann Smith, Ralph Berrier and Charles Mayer.

George C. Houck will be the guest soloist for the affair and will sing four numbers. The public is invited to attend this recital.

Mortuary Record

SCHAEFFER INFANT

Douglas W. Schaeffer, five-months-old son of Warren R. and Dolores Weiss Schaeffer Main St., Florin, died at 9:40 a. m. Monday at Lancaster General Hospital. Besides the parents, the child is survived by the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer, of Florin; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weiss, Colebrook; and the great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grank Hair, Hummelstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bailets, Colebrook.

Funeral services were held at the Nissley Funeral Home on Thursday morning, 10:30 with interment in the Henry Eberly cemetery.

Local Store Receives Special Certificates

Following laboratory tests that showed the high efficiency of their Custom Mixing equipment, H. S. Newcomer & Son, Inc. of Mount Joy has been issued a Certificate of Mixing Accuracy by the Ralston Purina Company of St. Louis, Mo.

This certificate qualifies the local feed company to mix Purina Micro-mixed supplements and concentrates with farmers' locally grown grains under approval formulas, thus enabling the farmer to make the best feeding use of his grains.

School Board To Adopt Budget

The First National Bank was again named treasurer of the Mount Joy Borough School Board at the May meeting of the group last Thursday. The yearly budget was discussed at the meeting and is expected to be adopted at the June meeting. Since Commencement is June 3, the meeting will be held on Thursday, June 10. Next week the budget will be posted at the high school prior to its adoption.

College Awards 'E's' To Local Students

A recognition luncheon was held honoring students participating in extramural activities at the Elizabethtown College Tuesday, May 18, 12:00 noon in the auditorium gymnasium. Local students honored were the following:

Norman Bowers, Landisville, received an activities "E" for four years as a member of the political science club. He was vice-president for three years. William Beaton received an "E" for three years on the varsity soccer team; Clair Metzler, 1 year on the soccer team; Mary Jane Hoffer, 2 years on the hockey team; Nancy Swanson and Shirley Eby, one year each on the hockey team.

Dean Henry G. Bucher, presided at the luncheon and William T. Swain, Jr., was the guest speaker and spoke on "Growing Gracefully".
