Adam Greer Installed As Rotary Head

Mount Joy Rotarians Tuesday noon observed two occasionsinstallation of their new president, Adam H. Greer, successor to Charles J. Bennett, Jr., and a visit from District Governor Paul Gingrich.

Other officers are Vice president Robert Hurst: secretary. Charles Ruhl; treasurer, Joseph Sheaffer; directors, Sam Balsbaugh, Dan Wolgemuth, Mike Pricio and Charles J. Bennett, Governor Gingrich gave an interesting account of his journey to Seattle, Wash., for the convention of Rotary International and of the events that took place at the convention.

Mr. Gingrich expressed appreciation for the work of the presidents of the clubs in this district and presented a past president's pin to Bennett. He then wished the new president success in the coming year, which is Rotary's golden anniversary year. President Bennett thanked the club for its part in the activities of the past year and presented the gavel to Adam Greer who pledged his efforts to the maintenance of Rotary ideals through his term.
