Enos "Pop" Kulp was automatically made president of the "absent-minded" professors club last week, when he drove to the railroad station to get the late sports edition. . . . He had walked half-way home, only to remember his car was parked at the station parking lot. . . .

Florin Pop watched his newly married son eye a terrific blonde, then he said: "Son, better stop looking at the girls, now that you're married."

"Listen, Pop, you can still look at a menu, even though you're on a diet."

Sometime you have nothing better to do than try your hand at some intricate deductions in mathematics which a genius insists will work. . . . He says "If you take the year of your birth, divide it by your telephone number, and subtract your wife's age, and you will get the size of your shirt collar."

A bachelor is a guy who never has found the perfect girl but who has had lots of fun hunting - - - tain't true, is it Dave?

A fellow on Manheim Street sent in this one: What I say goes. At my house, brother, Except, of course, My wife's mother.

A young woman from the East Ward, who is Lancaster Roses fan was watching a close game last week one evening. At one point she turned to the lady seated next to her and said, "Look, we've got a man on every base, now!"

The other lady remarked, "What of it? So has the other team."

Philosopher Enck says "Married men make the best salesmen because they are used to taking orders."

A young woman, spending her vacation on a farm near Milton Grove, was out in the pasture with the hired man. Several horses were nearby and she told the man she would like to ride one of the horses bare back.

The hired man helped her mount and the horse took off at a brisk trot. After the horse had circled the field a couple of times the young woman said she wanted to dismount. The hired man helped her down.

"How did you like your ride he inquired. "Gee," she said, "I never thought anything stuffed with hay could be so blamed hard."

Last Friday morning about 6:30 "Hunce" Schatz was coming up Main street grumbling and growling, because the paper boys weren't around yet. . . . He said he was listening to the championship fight on radio, and fell asleep. He wanted to get a paper to find out who the winner was.

Recipe Sings Semi-Sweet Duet In Frosting and Sauce

Want a wonderful chocolate frosting? Want a perfect chocolate sauce? Want them both in quick and easy style? Then you need only one recipe, our Semi-Sweet Chocolate Duet. With this recipe, you can make delicious frosting that has delicate, semi-sweet chocolate flavor. For a perfect chocolate sauce, just add more milk to the same basic recipe. It's that simple to complete either of the desserts in the photo, the chocolate-frosted sheet cake, or the cake à la mode with chocolate sauce.

Semi-Sweet Chocolate for Quick Desserts
Semi-sweet chocolate morsels are just right for quick chocolate cookery. This is the same chocolate that is used to stud Chocolate Crunch Cookies with morsels of candy-like chocolate flavor. As semi-sweet chocolate is already in small pieces, it melts readily for speedy chocolate cookery. This chocolate has such perfect, candy-like flavor that it requires few ingredients to make a frosting or sauce. In fact, you can't leave semi-sweet chocolate morsels around, or they'll be eaten as candy before you get a chance to use them in cookery. So hide a package, and make this delicious recipe.

Semi-Sweet Chocolate Duet (Frosting or Sauce)
1 package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
3 to 4 tablespoons hot milk, for frosting
½ cup hot milk, for sauce
1 teaspoon vanilla

In top of double boiler put semi-sweet chocolate morsels and butter. Heat until melted and mix until smooth. Remove from heat. For frosting, add milk and sugar alternately, adding enough milk to make a spreadable consistency. Stir in vanilla. For sauce, increase milk to ½ cup.
YIELD: Frosting for top of 10 x 15 inch cake, or 1½ cups chocolate sauce.
