Mumma, who was on the mound for the locals came through with flying colors as did his teammates in the sixth and seventh innings. An error by Bailey put the first man on to start the last inning. He stole second but was thrown out on a fine throw by the catcher, Watkins to Kear, the third baseman. A beautiful back-hand stop by Kear and a long throw for the second out was the fielding gem of the game. Mumma struck the next man out to end Manheim's 9-8 hid for victory.
