Hershey-LongClan Meets Sunday

In spite of the intense heat the Hershey-Long Reunion was held Sunday, August 1 at Long's Park, Lancaster. After the reading of the historical paper by the historian, Mrs. H. W. Cover, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hershey, of Hershey, gave a talk on their recent visit to Europe. They were able to visit with some of Switzerland. It is at this resort that the family goes every year to sell the articles of the famous Swiss hand embroidery.

Frank Dougherty, Landisville was re-elected president of the clan; Lloyd H. Fuhrman, Marietta, vice president; Mrs. Ida McElroy, Marietta, secretary; Mrs. James Baker, Columbia, assistant; Mrs. W. Boyles, Lancaster, treasurer; Mrs. H. W. Cover, Landisville, historian, and reporter. The group decided to meet the first Saturday of August in 1955 at Long's Park.

CHANGEOVER DELAYED
The new Donegal High school which was originally scheduled to be turned over to the authority July 1 was postponed until August 1. The date of the transfer from the contractor to the officials has again been postponed.
