Old Timers Feature Beamenderfer Catching

There was a good attendance at the Old Timers-Midget baseball game last Thursday evening. Marty Beamenderfer, who played with the Mount Joy team in 1909, "caught" two innings and then coached the Old Timers during the remainder of the game. Another part of his job was razzing the umpires, confusing the Midgets and entertaining the fans.

The average of the Old Timers' ages when they took the field was fifty-six and one half years old.

Association To Hold Annual Carnival

The Florin Hall Association will stage their annual carnival this Saturday evening, Aug. 21 on the hall grounds. The featured entertainment will be the Blue Ridge Boys. The boys are both radio and television stars and appear on WLBR-Lebanon radio and television and WHYL Carlisle radio.

The people of Mexico are composed of the descendants of the aboriginal Indians and Spaniards who colonized the country. Aztec and Mayan stock are absorbed in them.

Archers Plan Second Open Field Shoot

The northwestern Lancaster County's field archery club will sponsor an open field shoot on Sunday, August 22, 1:30 p. m. on their new 28-target, 24 acre course. This event will be the second of the season promoted by the archery club.

John Ream, Mount Joy, chairman of the tournament committee, is not announcing the type of shoot prior to the event. However, club members anticipate a combination of field and hunters grounds. Trophies will be awarded in all classes for men, women and juniors. All archers and any interested persons are welcome to attend the affair.

James B. Loser, president, emphasized that all archers will shoot in their classification and that those persons unclassified or beginners will be competing among themselves and not the more experienced archers. The field course is located 4½ miles northeast of Elizabethtown on the Ridge directly behind Riser's Church.

"Private Lives" Opens At Gretna Thursday

Noel Coward's comedy, "Private Lives," which has enjoyed a long and successful career in the theatre, will open Thursday for a week's run at the Gretna Playhouse, produced by Gene P. Otto and Charles F. Coghlan.

The play was first presented in London with author Coward and the late Gertrude Lawrence in the leading roles. The two stars later brought the play to the United States where it received critical acclaim. In 1948 after a long road tour, Tallulah Bankhead settled down to a long Broadway run in her revival of the show. Donald Cook was also starred. More recently Alexis Smith and Victor Jory took "Private Lives" on a summer tour.

Robert Lansing will play the part of Elyot Chase, the role created by Noel Coward. Playing opposite him will be Rachel Taylor as Amanda Prymne, Elyot's former wife. Vanita Brown will be seen as Elyot's new wife. Sybil James Ray will take the role of Victor, Amanda's second husband, a role which was originated by Laurence Olivier.

The comedy follows the misadventures of Elyot and Amanda when, after being divorced for a number of years, they meet at a hotel in France on honeymoons with new spouses. An hilarious climax is reached when both couples are thrown together in a flat in Paris where their marriage complications are straightened out in an unusual manner. The show will play through Aug. 25. Curtain time is 8:30 p. m.
