HAPPENINGS - of -LONG AGO

A Mastersonville farmer who knew very little about banking, was induced to open a checking account for convenience. About two months later he was loud in his praises. "By gum," he boasted. "That's a smart bank I've got all right." "How is it any smarter than any other bank?" asked a close neighbor.

A WISE OWL

"Cracky, but it is," he insisted. "Them fellows was slick enough. They went and got all the checks I wrote, back for me.

A well matched couple is when a man who snores marries a lady who is deaf.

Yesterday morning a New Haven Streeter was walking to the Maryland Paper Mill, a work, and when I asked him why he looked so tired he exclaimed:

"Well, I didn't get home until after daylight, and I was just undressing to go to bed when my wife woke up and said: "Aren't you getting up pretty early, J - - - -?" so in order to save an argument I just put my clothes back on and now I'm going to work.'

One thing about growing old, Home. is that you don't feel your oats as much as you do your corns.

Speaking of corn, I may as well tell you this one:

Big Chief Cripple Star enterhind the counter to him. "Ugh, vou slice 'em ham?"

The counter-man replied, 12 hours. "Yes, I sliced the ham. Why?" "Ugh," grunted the Indian. "You darn near miss 'em."
