Bulwark of Freedom

Every man believes in something! He has a creed—a "belief." He may find its expression in "isms," political theories, or what not. He seeks an answer to the question, "What is Life's Purpose?"
Christianity gives that answer. It has stood for 2,000 years when all other "isms" and beliefs have fallen by the wayside.
Episcopalians, too, have a creed. They follow the belief of the Ancient Church which is based on the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds. Both start, "I believe in God." The Episcopal Church is a "believing" church—believing in God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, one God—believing that Jesus Christ came to earth to save man from himself, and to establish a divine society in which all men are brothers.
This belief is the militant spirit of Christianity which can defeat Communism—and can defeat any other "ism" which threatens our God-given freedom, and is the answer to man's eternal question, "What is life's purpose?"
Won't you join us today in reaffirming our belief in God in the Episcopal Church near you?
