Corn Husking To Be Held Musser Farms

The annual Community Exhibit Corn Husking Contest will be held Friday, Oct. 15, on the Musser Leghorn Farms with eliminations beginning at 10:00 a. m. The committee in charge of the affair is Curvin H. Martin, Charles Riceford, M. M. Smith, Harry Sloat and Lloyd Swarr. The final contest will begin at 1:00 p. m.

The committee announced that they will abide by national rules which will be explained at the contest. Equipment dealers are invited to display and demonstrate their corn pickers and stalk cutters. This will take place immediately following the contests while the wagons of contestants are being weighed.

The first prize winner will be given a trophy; second, $15.00; third, $10.00; fourth, $7.50; and each contestant, $5.00. No contestant shall be eligible for a prize unless he continues husking the entire 30 minute period of the final contest. The winner will be determined by adding deductions for ears missed and for excess husks and subtracting this total from the gross weight of corn husked by each contestant.

Last year's husking champion was Richard Hyatt of Ronks R1. He husked 28.66 bushels of corn in 72 minutes. Mr. Hyatt also was the 1952 winner. Runner-up was Lewis Bixler, Mt. Joy R1. Mr. Bixler was also runner-up in 1952.

Church Welcomes Back Reappointed Minister

The Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Helwig were the guests of honor at a reception held in the Sunday School rooms of the Church of God Wednesday night. Since the Rev. Helwig was reappointed to the Mount Joy church at conference two weeks ago, a varied musical program and hymn sing was given in their honor.

Addresses of "welcome back" were offered during the program which was in charge of Mrs. Harvey Hawthorne. The congregation presented the couple with a lighted picture of Christ in Gethsemane. Following the program, refreshments were served.

Joycees Sponsor Paint Project Again This Year

"Operation Paint Pot" will again be an added attraction to the Halloween celebration in the borough. Through the courtesy of cooperation merchants who will lend their store windows for the project, the Mount Joy Joycees will offer prizes for best painted store windows.

The project will be open to all children in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades of the local school. Cash prizes will be given.

The Mount Joy Art Club will assist in the project with the mixing of paint. A powdered poster paint is used plus a cleanser powder. These are mixed with water and distributed to each student in individual jars.

Mrs. Frank Young, Jr. is chairman of the committee for the Joycees assisted by Mrs. Warren Hayman. The project was completed for the first time last year as a means of improving the appearance of the store windows rather than detracting them with the customary soaping.

Over 250 Attend Fashion Show

Over 250 persons attended the first fashion show to be held in Mount Joy Wednesday night by the local Joycees. Mrs. James Sheaffer served as narrator for the affair and members of the Joycees and their children served as models.

Fashions were from the Kitty Dress Shop; Jewelry was from Greer and Koser Jewelers; furniture, from Keener Home Furnishings; perfumes, from Sloan's Pharmacy; shoes from Jack Horner; ferns from Ruhl's greenhouses and the ramp was supplied by the J. C. Scavely & Sons. William Batzel took charge of all the stage and spot lighting effects.

Mrs. George Broske was organizer for the affair. The entire show was staged in scenes. Scene I showed a walk in the park; scene II, sleep-time gals featuring pajamas; scene III, Happy Birthday featuring a child's birthday party. During intermission, Mrs. Broske played organ numbers and the entire audience was served punch and homemade cookies from a buffet tables following an autumn setting.

Following intermission, scene IV featured a card party, scene V, a baby shower; scene VI, a cove party showing casual clothes and a finale.

Rapho Residents Seek New Road Leading To Borough

Eight residents of southern Rapho Township were heard at the regular meeting of the local borough council Monday night in the council chamber. Of the men, Alvin Reist, Lloyd Swarr and J. L. Swarr, explained the need of a road leading into the borough south of route 230. They went on to say that before the Jamesway Company was located in Mount Joy, the township people used the alley which ran parallel to East Main Street. Since that time, there is only one entry into town, to arrive via the highway.

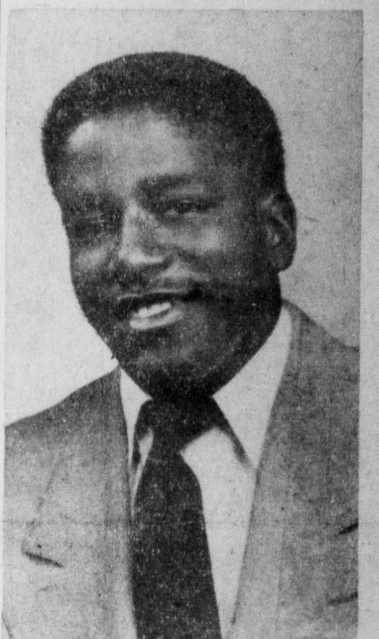

No definite decision was reached but the group went on record as accepting the report that they presented for consideration. Lloyd Myers, president, appointed the street committee headed by Maurice Bailey, to work out some agreement or solution with the group. At the present time there are two dead end streets running east-south of East Main Street that could be considered; East Donegal and New Streets.

Arthur Zerphey, Jr., presented a petition signed by seven property owners asking that a

Pvt. Wilson Is Credited With Rescue

A Mount Joy soldier, Pvt. Gerald E. Wilson, 22, is credited with saving several passengers from the wreckage of the Flying Boxcar which yesterday crashed into a barracks construction project at Fort Bragg, N. C., yesterday.

Aboard the plane, Wilson was on his way here to visit his wife the former Olive Simms, 410 Howard avenue, Lancaster. He is the son of Levi Wilson, Hopewell street, Mount Joy.

PVT. GERALD E. WILSON

Pvt. Wilson either jumped from the plane or was thrown from the wreckage. He then reentered the blazing plane and carried out several men.

A medic with the 325th Airborne Infantry Regiment of the 82nd Division, Wilson was aboard the plane because of efforts of the American Red Cross, which had aided him in obtaining emergency leave. His wife is expected to enter St. Joseph's hospital today to await the birth of their second child.

While a student at Mount Joy High School, Wilson was a leading scorer on the 1951 basketball team that won the Class C
