

OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

Talk about keeping up to date. Did you see the Christmas Greeting on the First National Bank clock? That's what I call rushing the season.

Perhaps "Hazel" had something to do with it!

By the time you have money to burn, the fire has gone out.

John D. Miller, Slate roofer, gave his lungs a bit of exercise, last week one morning, when he locked himself in the men's wash room down at the Richfield Gas Station on East Main Street - - After a number of yells and whoops, he was heard by a passerby, who released him from his sad predicament.

Local police are investigating an East Main Street apartment house - - Several weeks ago a family moved in, and the local authorities say that the shades have not been drawn since that time. - - Maybe they don't want to, encourage any peeping-toms. In the paper advertising one of Murphy's apartments for rent which is above the store room on West Main Street - - the following day one of Harry Darrenkamp's prize chickens was found on the stairway leading up to the apartment - - Which proves that not only the entire population of this community read The Bulletin, but the chickens also.

Two things that always go together are longer hemlines and shorter side-glances.

A North Barbara Street man in declining health heard about a treatment that would restore his youth. He immediately purchased a bottle of the tonic and proceeded to drain it to the last drop.

Next morning the family had great difficulty in waking him. Two weeks ago we had an ad He finally sat up, rubbed his eyes, and piped in a childish voice, "I'll get up, but I won't go to school."

At a wedding anniversary of an old friend of mine last Monday night, two of the matrons were reminiscing. "Does your husband still take your little hand in his?" one asked. "Oh, yes," said the other, "and twists it until I drop the rolling pin."

Here's a social climber if there ever was one: Gwennie Kramer is going to enter her pooch in the dog show this year.

Said a naturally surprised friend. "Do you really think it stands a chance of winning?" "Oh, no," Gwennie replied, "but think of the nice dogs he'll meet?"

"Living on a small income," said a local teacher, "wouldn't be so hard to do, if it weren't for the effort to keep it a secret, too".

Miss Zeller, "Joe give me a sentence using the word "witches."

Joe, after pausing awhile: "Youse go on ahead - I'll be witches in a minute."

Comment: No wonder the teacher felt ill!

Friend: "Bob, How did you cure your wife of her antique craze?"

Bob, "Oh, I just made her a birthday present of a 1923 model automobile."

It figures: "It seems to me" said a fellow from Florin to Raymond Rutledge (PPR agent) "that your rate of 4c a mile is too much!"

"Heck, I'll admit it's a lot of money to pay if you think of it by the mile. But you just reflect a bit of how cheap it is by the hour - only thirty-five cents."
