

Merry Christmas

"Thine Own Wish Wish I Thee,
What Dost Thou Crave?"

The ill may wish health, the poor may want wealth, the rich may seek contentment, the aged may long for youth, and some put acclaim above all else.

Would it not be wonderful if many more people should desire ever increasing opportunities to be of greater service to their fellow men, and sincerely wish for the ability to take advantage of such opportunities? Simply stated, is this not the basic teaching of Jesus the Christ, whose birth is celebrated at Christmas, and would it not be emulating His example?

May we all be blessed with wisdom so that we shall know what to do and how best to do it, to be of the greatest good to the largest number of our fellow men.

We are profoundly appreciative of the privilege of completing a century of service during this coming year, and it is our sincere wish that your ship too will come in laden with a cargo of your own desires. ....

All of those associated in our organization join in these wishes.
