THE BULLETIN, Mount Joy, Pa., Thursday, January 27 11

To Celebrate 75th Year Of C. E.

Approximately 35 local Christian Endeavor Societies in Lancaster County, covering all age groups will join with the Lancaster County, covered all age County Unions of Pennsylvania, the Pennsylvania Union, other state unions, early 50 National C. E. Unions, The International C. E. Union and the World C. E. Union from Jan. 30 through Feb. 6, in celebrating the 74th anniversary of the Founding of Christian Endeavor.

Christian Endeavor was founded by Dr. and Mrs. Francis E. Clark when a group of young people met in the parsonage of the Williston Congregational Church, Portland, Maine, Feb. 2, 1881.

In the beginning, Feb. 2 was celebrated as Christian Endeavor Day, but the observance was later extended and in 1914, a Christian Endeavor Week was inaugurated.

Since 1944, a united observance of Christian Endeavor Week and Youth Week has been held.

This year's celebration will be marked by many individual C. E. Society programs, some services, some socials, as well as a County Wide Rally at the New Holland E.U.B. Church, on Saturday, Feb. 5, at 7:30 p. m. The Rev. Daniel L. Shearer from the E.U.B. Church in Ephrata will speak.

Although C. E. Week is from Jan. 30 thru Feb. 6, B. McClain Cochden, Field Secretary of the Penna. C. E. Union, will appear with two young people on Channel 8, TV on the "Today With Kay" program at 2:45 p.m. Jan. 29th.
