Youth Plan Entire Day's Services

In observance of Youth Sunday, the young people of the St. Mark's E. U. B. Church, are making plans to take charge of the day's services Sunday, Jan. 30. Clair Wagner, Jr., will preach the sermon in the morning worship service. Young people will teach the Sunday School classes of the young people and adults in the 10:15 a. m. service and will also be in charge of the morning devotions. The evening service will feature a community-wide youth service.

School Of Missions To Hear Speaker From Pakistan

The Rev. Inayat Masih of Lahore, Pakistan, will speak of the work of the Church in his native land, this coming Sunday evening at 7:30, in the closing session of the mid-winter School of Missions and International Understanding, in the Elizabeth-town Church of the Brethren.

Mr. Masih was born in 1918 in a village in the Lyallpur District of what is now Pakistan, and is a graduate of the University of Punjab and of Bishop's College in Calcutta. In addition to active parish and missionary work in his Diocese, he served as Vice Principal of St. John's Divinity School. He was selected to come to America on a scholarship offered by the Episcopal Church for advanced study, and is presently enrolled at Union Theological Seminary in New York.

RUMMAGE SALE PLANNED

A rummage sale will be held next Friday and Saturday, January 28 and 29 in the office building formerly occupied by the late Dr. David Stoner. The sale is being sponsored by the St. Mary's Catholic Church and will be held each day from 9 a. m. to 9 p.m.
