EXTRAORDINARY
PUBLIC SALE AND AUCTION

Satur., Jan. 29, 1955
AT 6:30 P. M.

The undersigned will offer at Public Sale, at 336 N. Christian street, Lancaster.

new and used articles, furniture, clothing, antiques, carpets, rugs, lamps, kitchen utensils, dishes, bric-a-bac, food stuffs, baked goods, fancy work, live or dressed poultry. And other items far too many to mention.

This Auction is for the benefit of the Lancaster Chapter for Polio and the entire proceeds will be turned over to help fight polio.

I will receive any article you care to donate to this most worthy cause at my place of business here anytime from this date up until the day of the sale. I mean anything, too. I will even accept a calf or a hog or any other live stock and turkeys, chickens and other fowl. We will auction these articles for this wonderful polio cause and you should support it by donating some good articles to sell.

I will accept dressed fowl and baked goods the day of the sale, Saturday, January 29th—all day, but all other articles I will accept anytime.

WLAN will broadcast the sale all evening. Come and see a real broadcast and maybe you will be in it. There will be entertainment and refreshments will be for sale all evening. It will be fun for the kiddies as well as the grown ups.

Don't forget this date, Saturday, January 29th, and help a wonderful cause along. You can do this two ways. First by donating a good article. Second by attending the auction and buying some useful and good item at a saving and help support the 1955 March of Dimes and Dollars raise their money.
