Although the group took their lunch for noontime, most of them started to eat as soon as they boarded the train. Upon arriving in Harrisburg, they took a tour of the station and witnessed a half hour movie on railroading. They were taken to the main tower and also had their pictures taken. From the station, they visited and toured the state capitol and museum and returned to Mount Joy on the 2 p. m. train.

Mrs. Sadie Brooks accompanied the group as the nurse.
