stuff is not very good."

George McCue wrote me and said that Santa Claus wasn't so hot. He said fourteen years ago he asked for a soldier suit and only several months ago he gets it.

Carl Germer says: "One thing about baldness — it's neat."

Overheard this at the 5 & 10 last evening:
"Are you saving any money since you started your budget system?"
"Sure. By the time I get it straightened out every evening, it's too late to go anywhere."

Here's a nice thought — My mother-in-law is coming . . . another mouth to feed.

Jim Smeltzer told this about a fellow down at Safe Harbor.
This fellow once tried to train a fish to live out of water. The first day he kept the fish out of water for just a little while, the next day for a longer period, the next for an hour and so on until it could live in the air for a day at a time.

One day the man was walking over a bridge, while the fish which had become very fond of its master followed close behind.
But oh, the pity of it, the fish slipped, fell off the bridge into the river and drowned.

Local Youth Receive
4-H Special Awards

Miss Jane Greiner and Henry Greiner, brother and sister from Manheim R4, were included in the group of 23 Lancaster County youth to share in receiving trophies and other awards Friday evening at the annual banquet of the Red Rose 4-H Baby Beef and Lamb Club.

Miss Greiner was honored for feeding the steer with the highest rate of daily gain — 2.27 lbs.
Henry took the award for the highest daily gain in lambs. His trio average was .41 lbs. daily.

Letters To The Editor

There appears in the Letters to the Editor column this week one letter regarding recent horn blowing incident The Bulletin received three other letters which are not printed. Although we agree generally with the contents of all three letters, we are not publishing them because they are unsigned. It is the policy of this newspaper not to publish letters unless we know the writers. It is our firm conviction that anyone who takes a stand on any subject should be willing to be known.

Dear Editor:

I read your article on "Horn Blowing" with a great deal of interest.

For several years, many of us have been guilty of this same offense without any prosecutions, or even so much as a warning. If, after receiving complaints, it was necessary to "crack down" on horn blowing, why not be decent enough to give the Fans a warning before making an arrest?

According to your article of last week, Chief Neiss claims to have told the School Officials that Horn Blowing would have to be stopped. That is all very well, but, how about the many fans that no longer attend school.
I believe Mr. Robert A. Williams has a good reason to question, "just what was back of his arrest." Although I recognize that "Horn Blowing" is a violation of the motor vehicle code, that does not alter the fact that this "offense" has been tolerated for many years, not only after basketball games, but after weddings as well.

Whom do we have to thank for this untimely "crackdown"?
Was it our Chief of Police, Borough Council, or Burgess Rutt?
Sincerely,
John E. Wolgemuth

This year, why not let the long distance telephone be your Valentine's Day messenger.
It's a delightful change that will be doubly welcome by the loved one receiving your call. Rates are surprisingly low to anywhere —especially so after 6 P.M. Remember, too, your Valentine greetings would be equally welcome any time Sunday when low rates prevail all day. Be sentimental—be personal—telephone your Valentine.
