the Parish House. Lancaster Symphony

To Present Concert The Lancaster Symphony Orchestra will feature a repeat performance of Cesar Frank's 'Symphony in D Minor" in its third concert of the current season on February 15, 8:15 P. M. at McCaskey High School Auditorium.

In announcing the program for the third concert, Louis Vyner, conductor of the 75-piece Lancaster 'Symphony' is universally recognized as a concert favorite. The excellent reception it got when we performed it here four years ago and the many requests we have had for it since that time lead me to believe that the audience will be delighted to hear it again."

Also on the program will be Beethoven's "Concerto No. 4 in G Major for Piano and Orchestra." The soloist for this popular work will be the well-known young American pianist, John Ranck, who has appeared with leading symphonies from coast to coast. Rounding out the concert will be Wagner's "Overture to Rien-
