East Donegal School News

Room five, grade six, of the Maytown Elementary School presented their assembly program on Monday, Feb. 28.

Devotions were led by Donna Charles and Mervin Kline. Jean Breneman sang three verses of "America". She was accompanied by Joanne Martin. Terry Zeller was the announcer.

"Bobby and the Lincoln Speech" was the title of the first play presented. The characters included were Mother, Linda Hayden; Father, Billy Young; Bobby, John Dick; Mary, Joanne Martin; Lucille, Sylvia Emenheiser; Mr. Carter, George Glatacker; ball players, Richard Grove, Kenneth Ginder and John Matterna.

After the play John Matterna recited the "Gettysburg Address".

The second play was "Rumpelstiltskin". The characters were Rumpelstiltskin, John Martin; the miller, Terry Woods; Elsa, Carol Gratch; King, David Smith; soldiers, Charles Cunningham, Jerry Wagner, and John Winters. Sandy Miller was the narrator.

Following the play Sylvia Emenheiser played "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" on her accordion.

"The Virginia Reel" was popular in George Washington's time. Ten of the sixth graders gave their version of the reel. They were Dorothy Engle, Dorothy Hitz, Fay Lucas, Mary O'Hara, Joan Oliver, Paul Brooks, John Dick, Alvin Herr, Mervin Kline and David Smith.

The program ended with a tribute to Abraham Lincoln and George Washington - "Happy Birthday" played by Joanne Martin.

Lancaster Hospital Group Plans Fashion Show

The St. Joseph's Hospital Fashion Show will be held at the Hotel Brunswick Thursday, March 17 with two showings. The first will be a luncheon show at 12:30 p.m. and the second, an evening show at 8:30 p.m.

Tickets will go on sale at Hager's third floor Friday, March 4, 5 and 6 from 9 a. m. to 5 p.m. Luncheon reservations will be made at the same time that tickets are purchased.

Nurses from the hospital will be ushers and members of the auxiliary will act as hostesses. Mrs. W. Hensel Brown is president of the St. Joseph's Auxiliary and Mrs. H. Harold Sheaffer is chairman of the fashion show.

FRINGE BENEFITS ELUSIVE

"Fringe benefits in wage contracts may be much more elusive than they seem." Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

Farm Women To Tour Baltimore Spice Plant

Farm Women Society No. 5, who met last Saturday at the Salunga Church of the Brethren made a contribution of $10 to the Lancaster Chapter of the American Red Cross and decided to sew cancer badges Friday March 18, at the home of Mrs. Elsie Stehman, Manheim R1.

Final plans were also made for a trip to the spice plant in Baltimore. Mrs. Henrietta Scott talked on ceramics and Mrs. John H. Herr, Jr was hostess.

The next meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Mar. 26, in the home of Mrs. Marie Hershey, Manheim.

2 DOLLARS ON BALLOON

John Sykora, of the Soil Conservation Service team in Lancaster County, found a special $2.00 bill south of Mount Joy last week.

Mr. Sykora was making a soil survey south of the borough when he stumbled on a large deflated and deteriorated balloon with an envelope attached. Inside was a crisp, new two-dollar bill. A card explained that the balloon was released at Pittsburgh earlier in February by a television station as a promotion stunt.

BAND MEETING SCHEDULED

The monthly meeting of the Donegal High School Band Club will be held next Monday evening in the Donegal High School. The announcement was made that D. K. Ernst, hypnotist, will present a show in the school auditorium for the benefit of the uniform fund Saturday evening, April 23.
