INCOME TAX FACTS No. 2

Invest a Little Time In Saving Tax $$$$

(This is one of a series of articles on income tax changes. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants and the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants.)

"Why should I bother with that old tax form?" asked a young lady who started on her first job in December. "I don't need to because I got less than $600."

"You don't need to," her father explained, "but it will cost you money if you don't. How do you expect to get back the tax that was withheld from your pay?"

Do You Have To File?

Here are the rules to help you decide whether to file a federal income tax return:

1. If your gross income was $600 or more in 1954, you must file, unless you are 65 or older and had less than $1,200 income.
2. If you had $400 or more income from self-employment, you must file a return to report these earnings for social security purposes.
3. If you had any salary or wages from which withholding tax was deducted by your employer, you must file a return to get credit for the tax withheld.

Married Couples

Generally it's best for married couples to file joint returns instead of separate individual returns, because the joint return gives them the advantage of income-splitting. That is, they are taxed at the rate which applies to half their total taxable income.

There are a few exceptional cases in which separate returns might result in a saving. When capital losses are involved, for example, it's best to figure both jointly and separately to see which results in less tax.

Head of Household

If you are supporting a dependent, although you are single, widowed, divorced or legally separated, you may be able to qualify as a "head of household" and figure your tax on a special table that gives you part of the advantage enjoyed by married couples filing joint returns.

This year you can qualify for "head-of-household" status if you provide more than half the support of a parent and more than half the cost of maintaining the parent's household even if the parent does not live with you.

Incidentally, if your husband or wife died in 1952 or 1953 and you

The local Merchants finally defeated the league leaders, Local 285, by the score of 80-55. Playing inspiring ball, exhibiting good ball handling and shooting, resulted in an outstanding victory for the Merchants.

Playing without Klugh and Meminger, the locals jumped off to a 21-16 lead at the end of the first quarter. Johnson and B. Zimmerman scored 18 points between them. The second period found the scoring even on both sides with Hershey teaming with Zimmerman on 3 goals each. The 3rd period scoring was the deciding one that led toward the victory. The Merchants scored 27 to open their lead to 62-41 going into the final period.

NAVY OPENS HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE TRAINING PROGRAM

It was announced by Chief Petty Officer Karl A. Most, Jr., recruiter in charge of the local recruiting office, that the Navy has opened its Training Program for high school grads. With this program high school graduates can now be enlisted as High School Seaman Recruits, High School Airman Recruits, Electronics Field Seaman Recruits and High School Hospital Recruits. Upon completion of recruit training these young men will be assigned a specialty school in one of the four fields they have selected.

To qualify for this program an applicant must present his High School diploma and attain a minimum of 55 of the Navy's AQT, applicants qualifying test, or a minimum of 65 on the AFOT, Armed Forces qualifying test.

Under this program there are 54 different schools that an applicant can qualify for. Broken down in the four fields there are 26 schools open to a High School Seaman Recruit, 12 schools open to a High School Airman Recruit, 14 schools for an Electronics Field Seaman Recruit and 2 schools for High School Hospital Recruit.

There are a total of 61 different rates or job fields in the Navy and Chief Most says it is possible for an ambitious High School Grad to get the best training to be found anywhere in the world under this new program. Navy enlistments are wide open at the present time, "Don't Delay - Enlist Today."
