

Somebody's waiting for this invitation... FROM YOU

Take someone to church this week... you'll both be happier for it

There's somebody in our town... maybe the new family down the street... maybe the people next door... or that youngster at the office... There's someone in town you know... or know about, who would be really flattered if you asked them to go—with you—to church or synagogue.

Ask them—this week—won't you?

He restoreth your soul...  Worship together this week

LENTEN SERVICES IN ST. LUKE'S EPISCOPAL

The Lenten services in St.
Luke's Episcopal Church will be continued on Sunday evening Mar. 13 at 7 p. m. when the Rev.
Elmer A. Keiser, former Vicar of the Church will preach the sermon. He left St. Luke's church in April 1953 to become the rector of St. Paul's Church, Bloomsburg Pa. Following the service there will be a Fellowship Hour during which time his many friends will have opportunity to greet him. A motion picture "Who Is My Neighbor?" will be shown at this time. The story of this picture is based on the parable of the Good Samaritan as recorded in St. Luke the 10th chapter. The story emphasizes the fact that being a "Good Samaritan" means more than helping someone in need. It is doing something fine, noble and good for someone who hates you.

The sermon on Wednesday evening, March 16, will be delivered by the Rev. Paul R. Long of St. John's Church, Marietta.
