Billy Graham Film To Be Shown In Landisville Church

"Oiltown, U. S. A.", Billy Graham film to be shown here March 16, 1955.

Rev. Billy Graham, nationally known Evangelist and producer of the world's first Christian western film "Mr. Texas", will be seen in another religious film, "Oiltown, U.S.A." to be presented in the Landisville Church of God.

Rev. E. Thomas Tillett, in charge of local arrangements for the showing, announced that the picture will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Graham's film features the Evangelist and members of his Team in their city-wide evangelistic crusade in Houston, Texas. Highlighting the film are scenes from the meeting in Rice Stadium where 60,000 gathered to hear Graham for one of the largest evangelistic meetings in American history.

Featured in the film are professional Hollywood players who have become Christians themselves, including Colleen Townsend Evans, Georgia Lee, Paul Power, Robert Clarke and the stars of "Mr. Texas," Redd Harper and Cindy Walker. "Oiltown, U.S.A. is in natural color and is approximately ninety minutes in length.

Rev. Tillett pointed out that there is no charge for admission and that the 250 seats of the Church will be on a "first come" basis.

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State University College of Agriculture

Let Him Talk — Some parents of teen-agers are concerned because their child doesn't tell them anything. The confidence to discuss personal problems must be built up gradually. Parents should provide opportunity for a young child to talk and listen and encourage him. Then he'll be more likely to discuss problems when he is older.

Vary Meat Service — Here are some suggestions for using ground beef. Use in meat loaf or meat balls or meat balls combined with rice, bread, cracker crumbs, or oatmeal . . . in casseroles dishes with rice, noodles, spaghetti, or macaroni . . . with white sauce, tomato sauce, or cheese sauce . . . in Spanish rice, chili con carne, spaghetti dishes, or soups.

Choose Fabric — It's important to choose a suitable fabric for each dress you make. Well-made clothes often have been a disappointment to their seamstress because of unsuitable material. The pattern envelope gives fabric suggestions for the design featured.

Check Label — The length of a sheet as given on the label refers to the length before it was hemmed and shrunk.

Store Milk — For improved flavor of nonfat dry milk, mix and store in a covered container for several hours or overnight.

G. C. Murphy Co. Plans Expansion

W. C. Shaw, chairman of the board, and J. S. Mack president, announced that the Common Shareholders of G. C. Murphy Company will be asked at the Annual Meeting on April 12 to vote on a proposal to increase the authorized limit of indebtedness to $20,000,000. The last authorization was for $3,000,000 in 1930, when the Company's sales totaled $17,498,023. In 1954 sales volume was $182,172,687.

Approval of the proposal would permit the use of present funds to call all the outstanding 90,000 shares of 4 3/4% preferred stock, and would furnish maximum flexibility with lowered costs in carrying through an accelerated expansion program.

In 1954, 18 store locations were acquired for 1955-56 opening. One is in Charlotte, North Carolina, marking the first time since 1937 that the Company has entered an adjacent state. This program is designed to lessen sales sensitivity to the influences of the coal and steel industries through expansion into communities with other or more diversified industries.

In a letter sent all Shareholders, it was stated: "At the end of 1954 the Company had working capital of approximately $39,900,000, and cash and government securities of about 12,900,000 in excess of all liabilities. There are presently outstanding 90,000 shares of 4 3/4% preferred stock, subject to call. Although the annual dividend requirements of $427,500 represent the cost of retaining the working capital supplied by issuance of the preferred stock, no credit is given the Company for this cost in determining federal taxes."

Promotions Announced By Army Reserve

Promotion of three local enlisted men in the U. S. Army Reserve were announced Monday night by Col. F. M. Gavan, commanding the 9248th transportation corps staging area, in a ceremony held at Unit headquarters, 120 N. Lime St., Lancaster.

The reservists promoted, all from Private-2 to Private First Class, E-3, are: Gerald R. McMullin, son of Mrs. Lottie G. McMullin, Mount Joy R1; Ronald B. Walter and Arthur H. Zercher, both of Willow Street R1; All three joined the 9248th early in 1954 and took their Army Reserve basic infantry training with the 79th Division at Camp Pickett last summer. They are now eligible to join the 9248th in its 1955 annual unit training at Ft. Eustis, Va.

Activated less than three years ago, the 9248th reached maintenance strength last spring, but still has a few openings for junior enlisted men or women interested in Army administrative work. The unit holds 48 paid drills per year, in addition to the two weeks summer encampment.

SILO UNLOADING Electrically

Saves miles of climbing, reduces danger!

Tests of silo unloaders in operation under typical farm conditions indicate big savings in work. In fact, with an automatic electric silo unloader you need climb into the silo only occasionally to move the blower pipe down a rung on the chute ladder.

That gives you just that much extra time for other chores . . . and relieves you of one of farming's hazardous jobs

The silo unloader, operated by a handily located control switch and timer device, automatically unloads your silo without the usual climbing

See your farm equipment dealer, or consult your local PP&L Farm Representative about an easy-to-install silo unloader for your silo. It will save you time, work and danger.

INCOME TAX FACTS No. 3

Not All Your Income Goes In Your Tax Form

(This is one of a series of articles on income tax changes. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants and the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants.)

Taxpayers make more mistakes in listing their income than any other type of error, according to a survey made by the Internal Revenue Service. It is important to know what to include and what NOT to include. Look at this list and see if you can tell which should be listed as income on your federal income tax return:

- Dividends from an insurance policy.
- Pay of armed forces enlisted men while in combat or while hospitalized from combat service. Social Security benefits. Gifts.
- Payments received under Workmen's Compensation laws.
- The answer is that none of the above should be listed as taxable income! There are other forms of exempt income, too, which you will find listed in the official tax instructions. Some of them are:

- Other Exempt Income
Inheritances and bequests (the estate may be taxed but not the recipient).
- First $200 of monthly pay of armed forces officers while serving or hospitalized from active service in a combat zone.
- Railroad Retirement Act benefits. Certain health and accident benefits.
- Damages awarded by a court or paid out of court for personal injuries.
- Government payments and benefits to veterans and their families, except nondisability retirement pay and interest on terminal leave bonds. Interest on state and municipal bonds.
- Parsons and Prizes
The rental value of a parsonage furnished to a minister of the gospel is not taxable income; the law now adds that a rental allowance paid to him for this purpose is also exempt.
- If you won a prize, watch this fine distinction: the prize is taxable if you were required to exert even the slightest effort to earn it; on the other hand, if it was made in recognition of scientific, literary or other achievement and you were selected without any action on your part the prize is considered a gift and you are not taxed on it.
- Most scholarships and fellowships are exempt, unless they are paid as compensation for services, such as teaching and research.
- Additional Information
Be sure to read the official instructions. You can also get help from the Internal Revenue Service, which urges you to consult only qualified advisers.
