Canned Peas Good In Potato Nests

Canned peas, one of the leading vegetable packs, have an established popularity based on their delicate and sweet flavor. This attribute accounts for their acceptance "as is" and why they can be combined with so many other vegetables. For a substantial vegetable course, serve canned peas atop baked stuffed potatoes. And let the canned food shelf provide other menu suggestions. For the main course have baked luncheon loaf with a peach syrup glaze, accompanied by cling peach halves filled with pickle relish.

Peas in Potato Boats: Bake 3 large potatoes in hot oven (450° F.) one hour. Cut potatoes in half being careful not to break shell. Scoop out potato; mash, season with salt, pepper and butter. Add hot milk to make fluffy mashed potatoes. Put back in shell heaping the potato at the sides and leaving large depression in center. Brown under broiler. Drain a 1-pound can peas; reduce liquid by boiling to about one half. Add peas, salt, pepper and butter; heat to serving temperature. Fill potato centers with peas. YIELD: 6 servings.

Luncheon Loaf with Peach Garnish: Place 2 luncheon meat loaves together in baking pan; score the top and insert cloves. Sprinkle with 3 tablespoons of brown sugar. Pour 1 cup syrup drained from canned cling peaches around meat. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 30 minutes, basting several times during baking with the syrup. During last 15 minutes, place peach halves in pan with meat and fill centers with pickle relish. YIELD: 6 servings.

Easter Seal
Campaign Goal
Is $22,500

Crews of workers whose hearts have answered the need are devoting many hours to the crippled children.

Among them are men and women and boys and girls who have not only found time, but made time, to see that the 1955 Easter Seal Campaign of the Lancaster County Society for Crippled Children & Adults, Inc., gets off on the right footing. Across Lancaster county are volunteers representing groups of all kinds who are hard at work assisting in every phase of preparation for the biggest Easter Seal appeal ever made by the Lancaster County Society for Crippled Children & Adults, Inc., in its 9 year history.

They include: Housewives and interested friends, helping with clerical work in checking mailing lists; Secretaries Association, writing letters and addressing envelopes; Y-teen groups, sorting materials and stuffing envelopes with 1955 Easter Seals.

Dr. John B. Noss, prominent Lancaster civic leader and chairman of the campaigns, praised the workers for their "outstanding and conscientious efforts" displayed in carrying out "every necessary detail."

"Every contribution of this kind is a contribution for crippled children and adults in our community. We deeply appreciate the fine help we have received," he said.

The 1955 goal is $22,500 which is 12½ per cent more than last year. Because more and more crippled children seek services offered in our Clinics and Treatment Centers it is essential that this goal is met.

"Approximately 54,000 letters of appeal were mailed to residents in Lancaster City and County" said Dr. Noss. "We are affording the opportunity to help the handicapped to every citizen in the County" continued Noss, "so if you have not received a letter of appeal, mail your contribution to Wallace Robinson, Treasurer, 129 East Orange St., Lancaster."

ROBBERED OVER WEEKEND

The Florin diner was one of three places robbed in the county over last weekend. Thieves broke open a juke box at the diner and removed between $50 and $100 according to State Policeman Leroy Strickler.

The theft was discovered at 9 a. m. Sunday by Robert Smith, who opened the diner. He said that entrance was gained by breaking a window on the east side of the building.

"Attempting to block legitimate industrial development by private enterprise is not a mark of liberalism. It is simple demagoguery." New Haven Journal-Courier.
