Landisville - Salunga

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Salunga Fire Co. met at the fire hall March 21, with Mrs. Ruth Wendtitz presiding. It was decided at this meeting to hold a Strawberry Festival June 4th.

Miss Betty Jeanne Buch of Landisville, secretary of A. J. Ulrich, Heating and Plumbing, returned to full time work last week. She had suffered a fracture of the spine and had been unable to work for the past 3 months.

Landisville welcomes Jack Appliance Store operated by Jack Bigler. Earl Lonenecker had formerly operated an appliance store at this location.

The Rev. and Mrs. N. L. Bowers entertained the Misses Betty and Terry Buch at their home last Tuesday evening.

The Young Ladies class of the Salunga Methodist church is selling greeting cards. The profits go to the building fund of the church. Anyone wishing to purchase cards may contact Mrs. Robert Graver, class teacher, by calling Landisville 2892 or Miss Jeanne Stillinger, class president, Landisville 4856.

Congratulations to the members of the junior play cast of Hempfield High School who presented "Cupid in Pigtales". It was a great success.

A band concert will be presented this Saturday, April 2nd, in the auditorium of Hempfield Joint High School at 8:00 p. m. Tickets are now on sale. They may be purchased from any one of the students or at the concert Saturday evening. Plan to attend this evening of fine music. Buy your tickets in advance.

The Salunga Community Organization held a meeting Mar. 28 at the Salunga Fire Hall. Mr. George McFarland was elected president, succeeding Ray Wiley. The organization contributed $200 to the Fire Company for their building fund. They also donated $15 to the Salunga Methodist Easter Egg Hunt which is to be held on Good Friday.
