Donegal Will Be Well Represented In State Finals

Donegal High School will be well represented at the State Music and Fornesic finals to be held in York, April 28, 29, and 30. The Girls Trio, Alma Smith, Ruth Drescher, and Barbara Martin, gained superior honors and were informed that they have a fine chance for State honors. The girls sang "Spring Rain" as their selected number and "Sweet Day" as the required selection.

David Weidman again won District honors as tenor finalist and will now prepare for the State competition at York. Dave sang "Into the Night" and "Thy Sweet Singing.'

The remaining contestants made a remarkable showing as Alma Smith, Alto vocalist, and the Boys quartet, David Weidman, George Franke, John Heistand and Marlin Miller all finished second in each of their di-
