Band, Patrolmen Prepare For Parade Entry

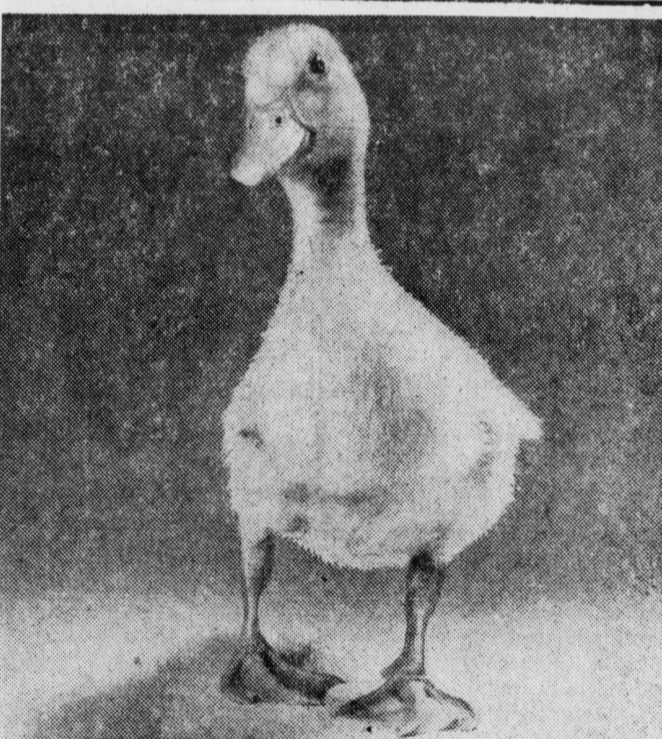

Plans are in progress at the Mount Joy Elementary School for the entry into the annual School safety patrol parade to be held in Lancaster Saturday, April 23. The Mount Joy Elementary school band will make its first public marching appearance when they parade under the direction of Mrs. George Broske.

The band will be dressed in their red and white cadet-type uniforms which were formerly

FOOD SALE APRIL 16

A food sale was planned by the Florin Fire Company Auxiliary at their meeting Monday night at the Florin Fire Hall. The sale will be held Saturday, April 16, starting at 3:00 p. m. Chicken corn soup will be featured with other cakes, pies, candies, and salads. Mrs. Gertrude Groff, president, was in charge.

the uniforms of the Mount Joy High School. Banners are being prepared for the sixth grade patrolmen to carry as their entry into the parade. Sixty marchers will appear in the line of march. Charles Heaps, principal, is in charge of the entry.
