The Bowlers' Alley

As the teams in the Commercial Bowling League go into their final month of competition; this is how they line up:

Team	Won	Lost
Koser Jewelry	32½	23½
Smith Distributor	31	25
Paper Box Co.	30½	25½
Drohan Supply Co.	30	26
Kulp Insurance	29	27
Wolgemuth Inc.	27	29
Hess Store	24	32
Rutt Insurance	20	36

On April 7, Hen Greiner rolled a 212-546 for high single and high triple game score, while his team, Kulp's had the high team single and triple for the week with 812-2264 for the week.

With three weeks remaining on the schedule, Greiner's 168 is the high average for the season, and Charley Johnson's 244-598 is the season's high single and triple game score for individual records.

The Wolgemuth team's 2492 triple is the high team triple, and Wolgemuth's and Drohan's are tied at 885 for the season high team single to date.

Nearly 14,000 persons were killed in weekend traffic accidents last year.

Donegal High Enters Team In Inter-County Tennis League

Sixteen boys have been placed in the Donegal High School tennis team for the spring season. Jack Beaton, Peter Nissley, Vernon Oberholtzer and Jay Metzler are the veterans of the squad and two others have seen action, James Crowl and Charles Groff.

Other members of the squad include Ronald Gotwalt, Richard Newcomer, Samuel Harnish, Harold Etsell, Jr., Richard Schneider, Douglas Fish, Jacob Zeller, Thomas Schroll, James Nissley and Robert Buchenauer.

Roy Arnold is coaching the squad which will play teams from six schools in the inter-county league. New Holland, McCaskey JayVees, Manheim Township, Warwick Union, Hershey JayVees and Lancaster Country Day are the other six teams in the league.

Mount Joy High School's tennis team won the league title last year. All the boys on the Donegal squad formerly played tennis at the Mount Joy school.

Donegal Basketball Team Treated To Family-Style Dinner

Members of the Donegal High School varsity basketball team were guests of honor at a dinner at the Kountry Kitchen on Monday night. As guests of Mrs. Miller Wolgemuth, owner, the boys were served dinner family style. According to Mrs. Wolgemuth, this was her way of saying thanks to the team for a fine job.

The boys could choose fried chicken, T-bone steaks or fried scallops. The climax of the dinner was banana splits! Eleven team members, one manager and two coaches were present for the affair.

Donegal Honor Group To Take Charge Of Paradise Induction

The Donegal High School National Honor Society will take charge of the induction ceremony of the Paradise High School Chapter National Honor Society Friday morning, April 15, 8:30 a.m. For the past three years, the Mount Joy Chapter conducted the ceremony for the Paradise School.

Barbara Martin will play a piano solo, "Polontise in A Major" by Chopin; Peter Nissley and Donald Raber will play a trumpet duet "Bolero". Barbara, Peter, Donald, Loretta Garlin, Shirley Gerlach, Ann Young and Alan Kugle are the members from Donegal who will have charge of the induction service.

Elmer Hoover, Elizabethtown College professor of Education, will be the speaker. Arthur Eshleman, principal, will be in charge and Miss Catharine G. Zeller will be in charge of the Donegal group.

H. ROY NISSLY'S SAIL TO EUROPE

Mr. and Mrs. H. Roy Nissly sailed Saturday on the S. S. United States to Paris, on a month's vacation, visiting several European countries.
