Speaker of the day was Wilbur Heistand, fire chief at Salunga. Chief Heistand also had words of praise for the fine work being done by Mrs. Young, pointing to the fact that the Mount Joy station is the only one in the county, outside of Lancaster city, with 24-hour service.
Mr. Heistand gave an interesting account of the close coordination of fire departments in Lancaster county, reminding his audience that Lancaster county has the best fire fighting set-up in the state.
