SCHROLL - MILLER

The marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Schroll, daughter of Daniel A. Schroll, 29 Columbia Ave., Mount Joy, to Gerald R. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Miller, Mt. Joy and High Sts., Mount Joy, was solemnized Saturday at 3 p. m. in St. Mark's EUB Church, Mount Joy with the Rev. Ezra Ranck officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Patricia Frantz, Mount Joy, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Roberta Waltman, of Lancaster, and Miss Nancy Schroll, niece of the bride, Elizabethtown. John R. Miller, Mount Joy, served his brother as best man. Ushers were Ronald Garlin, Mt. Joy, and Richard Leshner, Lancaster. Mrs. George Broske, Mt. Joy, played the wedding music. Soloist was George Houck, Florin.

The bride wore a white net over taffeta gown, fashioned with a lace bodice, long tapered sleeves, and a bouffant skirt ending in a sweep train. The inserts at the waist and bodice were trimmed with seed pearls and lily-of-the-valley. Her fingertip-length veil was attached to a Juliet cap of seed pearls and lily-of-the-valley. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and lilacs centered with a white orchid.

The maid of honor wore a pink gown of net over taffeta, fashioned with a strapless bodice, matching stole, and full skirt with a bustle. She wore a headband of blue flowers, and carried a bouquet of blue carnations and copper lilacs.

The bridesmaids wore blue gowns styled identically to that of the maid of honor's, and pink headbands. They carried bouquets of pink carnations, and copper colored lilacs.

A reception was held in the church social rooms. Following a wedding trip through the South, the couple will reside in Mount Joy. The bride, a graduate of Mount Joy High School, is employed in the stenographic department of the Armstrong Cork Co. The bridegroom is employed by John Nissley, contractor.

MRS. GERALD R. MILLER

SMITH - WITMER

The marriage of Miss Julia Mae Witmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Witmer, 30 Old Market St., Mount Joy, and Mrs. Ernest Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest B. Heavner, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., took place Saturday at two o'clock in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Mount Joy.

The Rev. Elmer H. Witmer, brother of the bride, and rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Westfield, officiated at the double ring ceremony assisted by the Rev. E. M. Moyer, rector of St. Luke's. Dr. David Schlosser played the wedding music and accompanied William Gassman, vocal soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle fashioned with a fitted bodice having a scooped neckline embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. The long fitted sleeves tapered to points over the wrists and the bouffant lace skirt terminated in a chapel train.

Her French tulle veil was attached to a headdress of lace dotted with pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of lilacs and white rose buds centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Donald Greenawalt of Lancaster was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Stanley Black, Harrisburg and Miss Barbara Ranck, Mt. Joy. Miss Linda Witmer, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Miss Connie Barber, cousin of the bridegroom, of Lancaster served as flower girl. Miss Marcia Kay Witmer, Kansas City, Mo., niece of the bride, and Raymond Rinehart were ring bearers.

Charles Snader, Lancaster, best man and the ushers were Richard Eby and Eugene Barber, both of Lancaster.

The matron of honor wore a waltz-length dress of yellow lace over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and scoop neckline. The full lace skirt was released beneath a cummerbund of taffeta.

The bridesmaids wore dresses of similar design in blue and the junior bridesmaids were gowned in blue dotted swiss with blue sash.

All the attendants wore small caps of velvet and maline in colors to match their gowns. They carried bouquets of yellow rose buds.

Both the ring bearers wore white; the little girl in a street length frock with blue sash and the little boy in a white suit.

The wedding reception was held at Hostetters Banquet Hall Mount Joy. After a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Mount Joy.

The bride graduated from Mt. Joy High School and her husband received his education in the Springfield, Illinois schools and served two years in the Marine Corps. Both are employed at Hamilton Watch Company.

The mothers of the bridal couple both chose navy blue gowns with white accessories and corsages of orchids for the wedding.

Bridal showers were given for the bride by Mrs. Donald Greenawalt at her home on Hershey Ave., Lancaster and Mrs. J. C. Witmer at her home in Mount Joy. Mr. and Mrs. A. Radcliffe, 211 Pearl St., Lancaster, with whom the bridegroom has resided, entertained the bridal party on Friday evening.

SWARR - ROHRER

The marriage of Miss Mary Susan Rohrer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Rohrer, of Lampeter, and Mr. B. Earl Swarr, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Lehman Swarr, Mount Joy R1, took place Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, in the home of the bride, with the Rev. Emory Herr, pastor of the Willow Street Mennonite Church, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Nissley, Mount Joy R1, were the honor attendants. The ushers were Ralph Swarr, Mount Joy R1, and Harold Rohrer, Lancaster R7. Gift receivers were Arlene Miller and Mrs. Harold Rohrer.

Music was provided by a trio consisting of Anna Groff, Dorothy Landis, and Ethel Mellinger. A reception was held in the Strasburg Fire Hall.

The couple will take a trip through the southern states. They will reside at Manheim R2.
