Maytown P.T.A.
Elects New Officers

At the regular meeting of the East Donegal P.T.A., new officers were elected for the next school term. The Rev. William Wagner was elected president, Roy Martin, vice president, Mrs. Raymond Newcomer, secretary, and Mrs. Michael Gratch, treasurer. Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Gratch were reelected.

During the meeting Eugene Saylor, grade school principal, commended the teachers, pupils cafeteria workers and janitor for a job well done this past year. Mr. Saylor also discussed the probability of remodeling the old grade school in Maytown, saying that engineers estimate, it would cost five times as much to build six rooms on the present building as it would to remodel the old building.

After the business meeting a movie on crippled children was shown, and refreshments were served by the kindergarten mothers and teachers.

Charles Young, retiring president, was in charge of the meeting.
