Weddings

(From page 4)

Gift receivers were Mrs. Floyd Kreider, Mount Joy RD; Miss Ruth Hershey, Gordonville RD; Miss Gladys Ranck, Lincoln Highway East, and Miss Miriam Landis, Strasburg R1. After a trip to the West and the Canadian Rockies, the couple will reside on a farm at Mount Joy RD.

GREIDER - SHEPLER

The marriage of Miss Shirley Arlene Shepler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Shepler, of Elizabethtown RD, to William Greider, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Greider, Mount Joy, and the late Mr. Greider, took place at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Keich's Evangelical Congregational Church, Marietta RD. The Rev. John E. Eckhart, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The couple will reside in Mount Joy. The bride is a graduate of Donegal High School. Mr. Greider, a graduate of East Hempfield High School, is employed by Hostetter Brothers and Sons, Mount Joy.

CARL - FORD

The marriage of Miss Mary Janice Carl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Donald Carl, 218 Highland Avenue, Elizabethtown, to George Ellsworth Ford, son of Mrs. Harry Frank, 11 Lumber Street, Mount Joy, took place Saturday at 4 p. m. in Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church, Elizabethtown, with the Rev. Phillip E. Saylor officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Jane Heisey, Cleona, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Roberta Frank, of Mount Joy; Misses Joan and Brenda Carl, both of Elizabethtown; and Mrs. Robert Nace, Virginia Beach, Va.

Franklin Sprout, Manheim, served as best man. Ushers were Joseph Coover, Robert Divit, Warren W. Bates, Abram Koser, all of Mount Joy.

The bride wore a Schiffl embroidered nylon tulle gown, with fitted bodice, frosted lace collar, short sleeves edged with matching lace, and bouffant skirt. Her circular veil was attached to a cap of silk illusion trimmed with small iridescent braid and pleats.

All the attendants were attired in crystallette floor-length gowns with torso bodices designed with shell-draped necklines and tiny sleeves. The maid of honor wore light blue and the bridesmaids wore petal pink. They all wore headresses matching their gowns.

Mrs. Joseph Mumma, Elizabethtown, played the wedding music and accompanied Warren E. Bates, Landisville, soloist.

Following a reception in Aunt Sally's Kitchen, Elizabethtown, the couple left on a wedding trip to Miami Beach, Fla. They will reside at the home of the bride.

The bride, a graduate of the Elizabethtown High School, is employed at Henry G. Carpenter, Inc., Mount Joy.

Mr. Ford, who graduated from Mount Joy High School, is serving with the U. S. Navy, stationed at Annapolis, Md.

SNYDER - SHAFER

The marriage of Miss G. Arlene Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas B. Snyder, East Petersburg, to Robert E. Shaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. David Shaffer, Hooversville, took place Saturday at 11 a. m. in Calvary Reformed Church, of Reading, with the Rev. Harold C. Hollinger officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Janice A. Delong was maid of honor and the bride's sister, Miss Sara Ann Snyder, was bridesmaid. Zane Shaffer served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Lowell Shaffer, Hooversville; Russell and Robert Snyder, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Miriam Baker Hompe played the wedding music. After a reception in the church social room the couple left on a wedding trip through the New England states. They will reside in Camp Hill.

The bride is a graduate of the Lancaster General Hospital School of Nursing and Lebanon Valley College. The bridegroom, a graduate of Pennsylvania State University, formerly lived on East Main Street,

COBLE-ARNDT

Mount Joy. Prior to becoming field engineer for Aircraft Marine Products, Inc., Harrisburg, he taught in the former East Donegal Township High School.

Miss Jacqueline J. Coble, daughter of Mrs. Mable Coble, 120 S. Market Street, Elizabethtown, and the late Leo V. Coble, and Robert W. Arndt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli S. Arndt, Main Street, Florin, were married Friday at 7 p. m. in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Mount Joy, with the Rev. Emmert M. Moyer officiating.

Miss Terry Herr, Elizabethtown, was the bride's honor attendant. John Wagner, Florin, served as best man. Ushers were Harry Rehoad and Richard Arndt, the groom's brother, both of Florin.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Leo V. Coble. She wore a ballerina length gown of lace and tulle with a fitted bodice, V neckline, short lace sleeves, and an apron effect skirt of lace over tiers of nylon tulle. Her fingertip veil was attached to a pearl headpiece. She carried a bouquet of Rubrum lilies, baby's breath and small white flowers.

Miss Herr wore a ballerina length gown of ice blue lace and tulle with a lace bodice, satin cummerbund, and full skirt of tulle over taffeta. Her headpiece of veiling and satin matched her gown. She carried a bouquet of yellow iris and white daisies.

Mrs. Coble, mother of the bride, chose a blue dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage, and Mrs. Arndt, the groom's mother, chose a pink dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Miss Edith Herr, Elizabethtown, played wedding music. A lawn reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Following a wedding trip to the mountains, the couple will reside on Main Street, Florin.

The bridegroom is a graduate of East Donegal High School and is employed in Florin.

JOHN A. KEENER ATTENDS HONEGGER FARM TRAINING

John A. Keener of Marietta R1 returned Saturday from Fairbury, Ill., where he attended a five-day farm service course sponsored by Honeggers & Co., feed manufacturers and operators of the nation's largest U. S. Certified hatchery. The 1500-mile trip was made to round out Mr. Keener's training as a manager for J. A. Keener Corn & Feed, local distributor of Honegger products. The training course, Mr. Keener reported, was attended by 27 students who spent five well-rounded days participating in lectures, farm demonstrations and tours concerning livestock and poultry nutrition, feeding plans, disease diagnosis and control, along with instruction on modern feed store management.
